CLARENCE E. WILLIAMSON, SR.

Mr. Clarence Eugene Williamson, Sr., 88, was born December 20, 1936, to the late Fred Williamson and Esther Surratt Williamson, in Shelby, NC.

Gene, as he was called, grew up here in Cleveland County and graduated from Washington High School. He began his professional career here as a plasterer. He continued those skills and became a stucco contractor with his brothers for many years in NY. He was known as the jack of all trades and could do anything with his hands within the carpentry field.

In his spare time, he was a Wondering Soul. He was the chauffeur for the Harold Williamson and the Wondering Soul quartet group. He enjoyed traveling, attending church, and he was the baby sitter of many nieces and nephews and called the paternal father. He was a great family man, a member and Deacon of Mount Calvary Church of God in Gastonia, NC.

In addition to his parents, he is also preceded in death by his brother, James Williamson.

He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Golden W. Young Williamson; son, Clarence Eugene Williamson, Jr.; stepdaughter, Kimberly Young; many grandchildren and great grandchildren; brothers, Harold Williamson (Elaine) and Rayford Williamson; sister, Patricia Flack; brothers in law, David Webber (Beatrice) and Anthony Webber (Sheila); sister in law, Patricia Webber; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
