

Psalm 139: 7-16
NIV

Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.
If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
if I settle on the far side of the sea,
even there your hand will guide me,
your right hand will hold me fast.

If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me
and the light become night around me," even the darkness will not be dark to you;
the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be!

OBITUARY

Asher Lucas "Koshi"

Asher was born on April 2, 1996 to the late Jerry and Cynthia Elaine Lucas in Miami, Florida and departed this earthly life on October 15, 2025.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Israel.

Asher was the youngest of nine children. He leaves to cherish his memory, three brothers, Scean, Ahem, Enoch; and 4 sisters, Colleen, Beba, Daleth and Mikhal along with his uncles, aunts and cousins.

Fondly known by his mother as "Koshi", Asher always wore the biggest warmest, and pleasant smile wherever he'd go and would laugh at the simplest little light-hearted things. He didn't seem to meet a stranger and was friendly to those he met. Asher thoroughly enjoyed the outdoors, and working with his hands. As he traveled throughout his journey here, he lived life simple and in the moment. Though he met some challenges he would keep pressing and adapting in his way to the things that confronted him.

Asher's life here was brief, and there is the assurance he did make the ultimate decision to choose Christ as his Savior and Redeemer. We rest knowing he is finally at rest from this life's journey.
