

Glenn Allen Brooks

Glenn Allen Brooks was born December 15, 1951 and transitioned to Eternity on Saturday, January 10, 2026.

He was preceded in death by loving parents Robert and Estelle Brooks; sisters, Olivia B. Tate, Elizabeth B. Edwards, and Elease Brooks; and brother Willie Brooks.

He leaves two sons, Allan Brooks (Shawanna), and Shawn Brooks, wife, Joyce C. Brooks; three brothers, Dr. Larry J. Brooks, Johnny Brooks (Julie) and Joe Brooks; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews, all to cherish his memory.

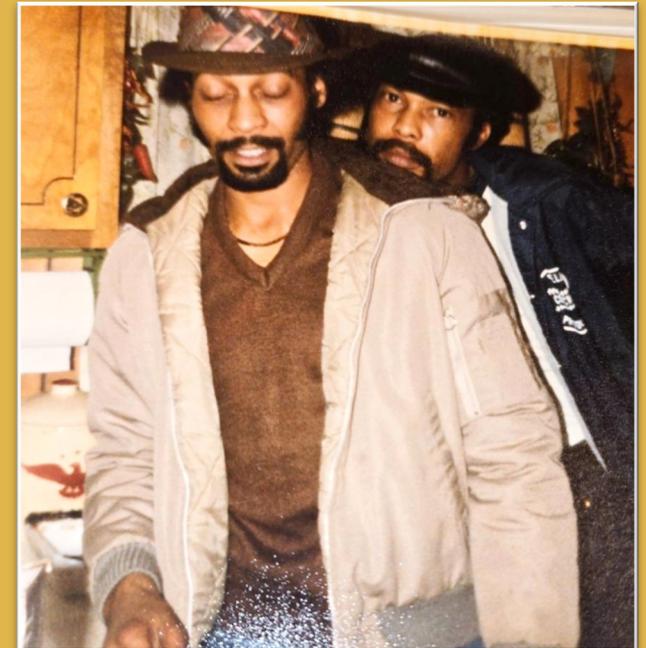

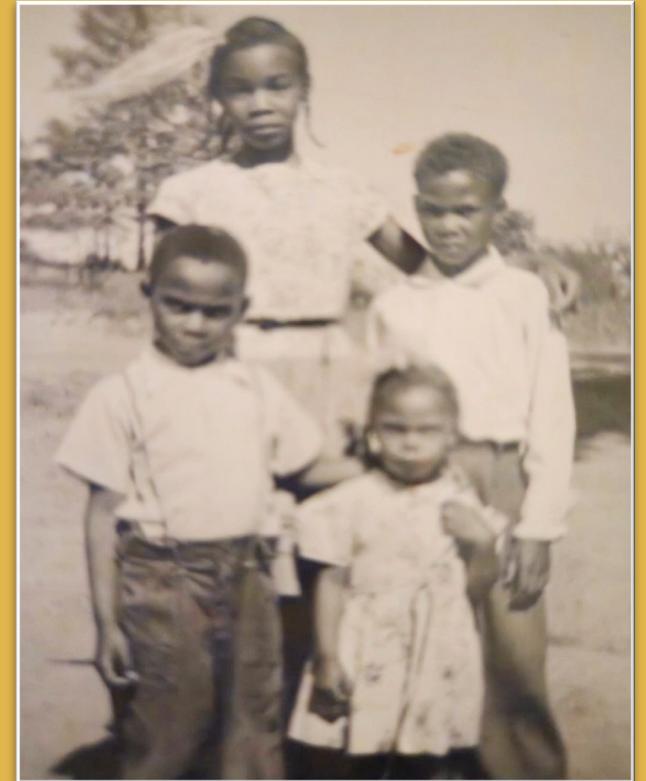

He attended Camp Elementary School and Crest High School. Glenn joined Ellis Chapel at an early age. He was employed with AA Ramsey & Son, Bost Bakery, and other companies in the area during his career. He was very fond of following college and professional football and basketball teams. Glenn was quite the basketball player himself in his younger years, often enjoying pick-up games with his brothers and other friends. He used to take great pride in his appearance and attire and his wealth of knowledge around politics and world news.

Even though he was the youngest son, he was blessed with an incredible memory of family and Light Oak community histories. He had a seriousness about him. He was known to speak his mind, but he also was a great conversationalist, patient listener, and in possession of a quick, dry wit that he would share on occasion.

Someone once said, "There is a destiny that makes us brothers: none goes his way alone." He adored his sisters, but the close brotherhood he shared with his older brothers went beyond any measure of loyalty, dedication, and love.

YOU WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED . . . .

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff,
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
