“The Watcher”

She always leaned to watch for us
 Anxious if we were late,
 In winter by the window,
 In summer by the gate.
 And though we mocked her tenderly
 Who had such foolish care,
 The long way home would seem more safe,
 Because she waited there.
 Her thoughts were all so full of us,
 She never could forget,
 And so I think that where she is
 She must be watching yet.
 Waiting ‘til we come home to her
 Anxious if we are late
 Watching from Heaven’s window
 Leaning from Heaven’s gate.
