A Life Well Lived

Annie M. Dorsey (Matriarch), 88, of Shelby NC, transitioned to Glory on Friday, April 10, 2026 at her residence. She was born on April 11, 1937 in Belwood, NC to the late Nute Dorsey and Roberta Byrd Dorsey.

Annie was a 1955 graduate of Cleveland High School. She also attended Green Bethel and Douglas High Schools where she played basketball and softball. After high school she worked for Piedmont Lining. In 1970, she then attended and graduated from CCC with a Certified Nursing Assistant II certification. She retired after 21 years of service from Cleveland Memorial Hospital. After retirement from the hospital, she worked for Peak Resources for more than five years before retiring. She was a former faithful member of Ryburn Memorial Presbyterian Church for many years, where she served in many capacities.

Annie will be remembered as a kind, peaceful, and respected Matriarch in the Robertsdale Community as a devoted mother and loving grandmother. She loved helping others. She loved sports, and was a die-hard Carolina Panthers and Tar Heel Fan. In her spare time she enjoyed shopping and socializing with her nieces. Her favorite holiday was Christmas, she loved decorating Christmas trees.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by four sisters, Mable Dorsey Barber, Nicey B. Dorsey, Pearlle Dorsey Taylor, and Lucy Williamson; five brothers, AB Dorsey, Wilber Dorsey, Moses Dorsey, Roscoe C. Dorsey, and Joe F. Dorsey; son, Kip L. Dorsey; and a grandson, Petrie R. Dorsey.

She leaves to cherish special memories, four children, Byram Dorsey of the home, Todd Dorsey (Myra) of Charlotte, NC, Patrice Dorsey Anthony (Willie) of the home, and Hope Dorsey of Shelby, NC; five grandchildren, Myranda Dorsey Polk(Kasey), Ashley Dorsey Studwell (Jermaine) of Greensboro, NC, Kipton L. Key of Winston Salem, NC. Deidre Dorsey of Charlotte, NC, and Denzel Spikes of Georgia; four great grandchildren, Mason Brooks, Story Studwell, Kyser Polk, and Kol Polk; three special nieces, Brenda Dorsey Hardy, May Dorsey Hayes, and Valarie Williams; nephew, Melvin Crosby; Goddaughter, Shelia McCain; and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
