I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of day.

If my passing has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good family, Good friends, good times,
A loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary of Agnes Ellis Elmore

Agnes Ellis Elmore, 88, of 110 Steeplechase Lane, Raeford, North Carolina, departed this life on Thursday, June 18, 2026, at First Health Hospice House in West End, North Carolina.

A native of Cherokee County, South Carolina, she was born on August 23, 1937, to the late Jacob McBrayer Ellis and Novella Thompson Ellis.

Agnes was a graduate of Camp High School, where she served as valedictorian of her graduating class. She was a faithful member of Hope New Zion UHCA, where she was appointed Church Mother by Pastor Elder Carolyn Moore.

Throughout her working years, Agnes was employed by Patterson's Flowers as a nursery and greenhouse worker, by Pretty Paper, and as a food service worker.

Agnes will be remembered as a woman who loved the Lord and served Him faithfully. She deeply loved and cherished her family and extended kindness and compassion to everyone she met.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Matthew Elmore, Jr.; her son, Walter Brian Elmore; and her brothers, Walter B. Ellis, Curtis Ellis, Larry Wayne Ellis, and Jacob Ellis.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory three sons: Anthony Wade Ellis (Tammy) of Shelby, North Carolina; Elder Rodney Eugene Elmore of Raeford, North Carolina; and Ernest Matthew Elmore III (Tonia) of Shelby, North Carolina. She also leaves a special niece, Priscilla Roseboro (Rev. Lawrence Roseboro) of Shelby, North Carolina; eight grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends who will forever treasure her memory.
