

James Lee Coleman

Mr. James Lee Coleman beloved son of Virginia Black and the late Cole B. Coleman was born on January 29, 1950 in Cleveland County, NC. He departed this life on June 21, 2026 at his residence in Shelby. Preceding his death, his 95 year old mother took him into her home following an automobile accident and nurtured him with unconditional love until his demise.

James graduated from Shelby High School in 1979 and he attended Cleveland Community College. Throughout his 76 years, his passion was caring for people and making people laugh. He was a genuine servant of the Lord. James had a heart for people. He knew everyone and met them right where they were sick or well. He was employed with Cleveland Regional Hospital and White Oak Manor. His character spoke for him.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his siblings, Judy Brown, Linda Best, Tina Jones and Coleman L. Coleman, Sr.

He leaves behind his devoted and loving mother, Virginia Coleman Black; his wife, Sandra Odoms Coleman; his daughter, Sarah Coleman; grandchildren, Xavier Proctor, Kierra Proctor and Nicholas Jr.; great-granddaughter, Lola Proctor; siblings, Hester Cumberlander, Janie Hoey (Hartwell) and Stanley Coleman and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.
