Dad,

We never imagined the day would come when we'd have to say goodbye. We thought there would be more conversations, more laughter, more memories to make. You were our protector, our teacher, our strength when life became heavy. You showed us what it meant to love, to work hard, and to keep going even when life wasn't easy. Now there is an empty place where your voice used to be, and a silence that only your love could fill. But even though we can no longer hold your hand, we will carry your heart with us forever. Thank you for every sacrifice you made, for every lesson you taught, for every hug, every smile, and every prayer. Those gifts will never leave us. We promise to honor your name, to look after one another, and to live in a way that would make you proud. Though our hearts are broken, we find comfort knowing your pain has ended and that you are resting in God's eternal peace. Until we meet again, Dad, know that you are deeply loved, greatly missed, and forever remembered. You may be gone from our sight, but never from our hearts.

With all our love,
Your Children
