Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones, oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in the everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever...safely home in heaven at last.*

*There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth, you shall rest in God's own land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
Oh! The rapture of that meeting, oh, the joy to see you come!*

LOVING MEMORIES

Quentin Justin Dawson, 25, was born in Charlotte, NC, to Travis Dawson and Beverlyn Wright Dawson on October 12, 2000. He passed away on July 14, 2026 at Atrium Health Main in Charlotte, NC.

Quentin was a quiet young man who loved life and family. He had a smile would light up the room. His parents were his caretakers and his lifeline. His daily word to them was, “Hey Dad” or “Hey Mom”, which was his way of starting a conversation for planning his day. He was a very strong willed intelligent man who continuously fought the good fight.

Quentin’s desire was to become a chef. His favorite pastime was eating new foods and trying out different restaurant menus. He loved watching cooking channels. He would ask his Mom ‘What we eating?’ throughout the day. His favorite restaurant was Texas Roadhouse. He would order the bar-b-que ribs, rolls, and two sweet potatoes. However, don’t forget the rolls and the cinnamon butter and brown sugar topping.

Quentin also loved flavored beverages. He had a passion for drinking and tasting different teas and sodas. He was a frequent customer at Starbucks and he took pleasure with sampling the varieties the menu had to offer. The love of drinks led to his passion for collecting Stanley and Yeti cups.

He got entertainment from listening to music and playing video games. He needed to be comfortable, so his favorite attire was to get going in one of his cool designer jogging suits.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Lee Wright and Shelly ‘Shirley’ Wright; paternal grandfather, J. W. Dawson; and aunt, Shelly Whiteside.

In addition to his parents, Travis Dawson and Beverlyn Wright Dawson he leaves to cherish his memory a brother, Travis Levon Dawson II; and a sister Leslie Dawson; paternal grandmother, Norma Jamison; uncles, Bryant Wright and Javester Dawson; and a host of other relatives.
