Homecoming

Don't cry for me, My pain is gone I've gone home and
I pray that you will follow,
Where time is but a moment
and sorrow is a distant memory
Don't cry for me,
I am not alone,
I've been welcomed into love embrace.
Don't mourn for me, rejoice for me,
For this is not the end.
Just keep my memory in your heart;
Until we meet again.

Her Journey

LaToya Shaquette Parrott

Ms. LaToya Shaquette Parrott went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, July 30, 2026 in Hospice, Shelby, NC. She was born on February 28, 1985 in Cleveland County, NC to Ms. Veronica Renea Parrott and Mr. Toney R. Jones.

LaToya attended Shelby High School in Shelby, NC. She worked at PPG Industries for over 20 years as a Lead/Supervisor.

LaToya was always a lot of fun when interacting with other people--whether family, friends or coworkers. She loved having a good time when at home or in the company of family and friends. She kept it real with you and never held back when speaking her mind on people or things! She was a huge fan of the New England Patriots NFL Team and was proud to wear her team's jersey during football season or throughout the year.

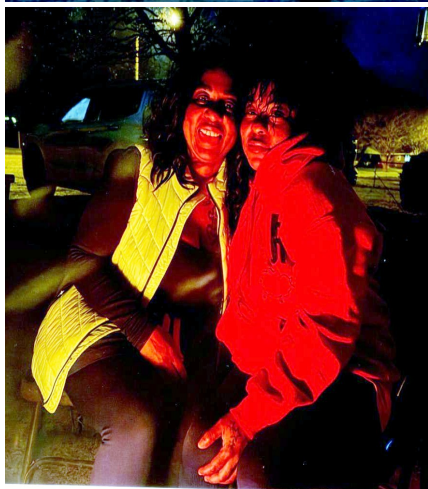

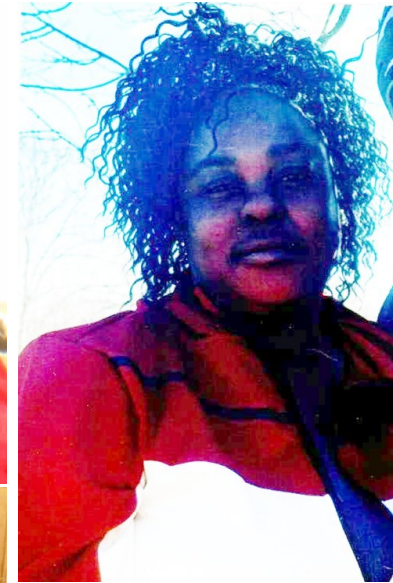

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Ms. Sylvia Parrott and her paternal grandparents, Mr. John H. Jones, Sr. and Mrs. Eddie Mae W. Jones.

Left to cherish fond memories of her are her parents, Veronica Renea Parrott of Toccoa, GA and Toney R. Jones of Asheville, NC; two sisters, Tiara Jones of Lincolnton, NC and Spechel Walker "KiKi" (Jamarcus) of Toccoa, GA; two brothers, Toney R. Jones, Jr. of Shelby, NC and Quentin Parrott of Toccoa, GA; her maternal grandfather, Mr. Randolph Parrott (Annette) of Shelby, NC; her stepmother, Ms. Tina Craig; a long-time special friend, Mr. Odell Young; special family friends, Archedell Young, Joe Gemes, Tony Young, Odis Young, Emma Young, Rosemary Young, Rusty Spikes, John Stroud, and Mary Robinson all of Shelby, NC; her boyfriend, Mr. Charles Spikes "Bookie" of Shelby, NC; aunts; uncles; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
