

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

"The family of the late Patricia J Wilson wishes to express our sincere gratitude for the comforting words, prayers, and many acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement."

Grandma

If roses grow in Heaven, Lord
Please pick a bunch for me
Place them in my Grandma's arms
And tell her they're
from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her
And when she turns to smile
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for awhile..

OBITUARY

Mrs. Patricia J Wilson, affectionately known as “maw maw Trish” (Oma Trish) ,was born on February 4, 1949, in Cleveland County, North Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Arnette Poston Johnson and Emerson Johnson. On August 4, 2026, she peacefully transitioned to the afterlife at Novant Health Presbyterian Medical Center, where she found eternal rest with Christ.

Throughout her life, Patricia wholeheartedly believed in Christ and not only lived by His teachings but also instilled them in everyone she encountered. She dedicated over 30 years to Cleveland Community College, where she retired.

Patricia was a loving and caring woman who always went out of her way to help others and encourage them to do the same. She often said, “You never know who will have to give you the last drop of water.”

In her free time, Patricia enjoyed watching the Dallas Cowboys, fishing, and decorating her home. However, her greatest joy was spending quality time with her family.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Arnette Poston Johnson and Emerson Johnson, and her siblings, Dan Poston, Bessie Mae Brown, Herman Johnson, John L Poston, Pansy Lee Poston Spikes, and Billy H Poston.

Patricia leaves behind her loving family and cherished memories with her son, Charles Johnson;(Betsy) her brother, Steven Johnson; (Gale) her granddaughters, Sharon Johnson (Patrick) and Latoya Clemmons (Quinten) (Sharon J) and her great-grandchildren, Justin Johnson, Jamyhia Clemmons, Penny Merriweather, Ava Clemmons, Eli Kirksey and Ezra Kirksey . In addition to a host of neices, nephews, other family other friends.

Patricia’s love , faith and support will forever be in our hearts. She was a truly special woman.
