

May I Go

May I go now? Do you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to painful days and nights?

I have lived my life and I've done my best,
An example I tried to be
So can I take that step beyond and set my spirit free?

I didn't want to go at first. I fought with all my might.
But something seemed to draw me now
to a warm and loving light.

I want to go. I really do. It's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can to live just one more day.
To give you time to care for me
And share your love and fears.
I know you're sad and afraid, Because I see your tears.

I'll not be far. I promise that,
And hope you always know
That my spirit will be close to you,
Wherever you may go.

Thank you so much for loving me.
You know I love you too.
That's why it's hard to say goodbye
And end this life with you.
So kiss me now just one more time
And let me hear you say,
"Because you care so much for me,
You'll let me go today."

REMEMBERING Lester

Mr. Lester Lee Robbs, 72, of Shelby, North Carolina, passed away on Sunday, September 13, 2026, at Atrium Health Cleveland in Shelby, North Carolina. He was born February 12, 1954, to the late Silas and Phonice Robbs.

Lester attended Washington Elementary School as a child. He was a graduate of Burns High School. He attended Cleveland Community College for Auto Body Repair. Lester became a member of Shelby Fire Department in 1973 and retired as a captain after 30 years of service in 2001. Lester loved sports and he enjoyed playing basketball in his younger years. He discovered golfing in his later years and loved it. He was at the Shelby Golf Course so much that they gave him a job at the Pro Shop, where he worked until 2013.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, his loving wife of 46 years, Peggy Black Robbs; daughter, Latonya Dorsey (Tyree), son, Derrick Robbs, daughter, Amber Robbs Mills (Michael); grandchildren, Brenda Dorsey, Brenden Dorsey, Evona Kelley, Alexander Robbs, Michael Mills, Jr., Malcolm Mills, and Autumn Ambler; great-grandson, Aaron Collins; brothers and sisters, Calvin Robbs (Gail), Kenneth Robbs (Pat), Steve Robbs, Sharian Robbs, Andre Robbs, and Silas Robbs (Sharon); aunts, Mary Biggs and Shirley Wilson (Robert); brothers-in-law, Raymond Thompson and David Black (Yvonne), and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
