A Life Well Lived!

Ms. Lallage Lowe Clements transitioned from her earthly life on September 24, at Clevland Regional Medical Center in Shelby, NC. She was born on October 21, 1933 in Cleveland County, NC, to the late Charlie B. and Odessa Hill Lowe.

Lallage received Christ at an early age at Hopewell Baptist Church where she attended faithfully for many years. She was a 1952 graduate of Washington High School in Shelby, NC and attended many class reunions in her adult years. Lallage was a woman of deep and abiding faith whose love for God was reflected in the way she lived and cared for those around her. A faithful Christian, she treasured her church family at Hopewell Baptist Church and enjoyed participating in church activities and fellowship. She was also a former member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Music held a special place in her heart, and she found great joy in singing and playing the piano. Her genuine passion for music remained a beautiful part of her life throughout the years.

Lallage also expressed her love through the many things she created with her hands. She enjoyed baking for her family, especially her beloved chocolate cake with chocolate icing, a special treat her children and grandchildren eagerly anticipated. A gifted seamstress and avid sewer, she worked from her home creating and altering clothing for family, friends, and members of her community. She also placed great value on education and believed in the importance of learning, growth, and encouraging future generations to pursue knowledge and opportunities.

She found great peace in the simple beauty of nature. Blessed with a green thumb, Lallage loved gardening, tending to her plants, walking outdoors, and appreciating the world around her.

Above all, Lallage cherished her family. Spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren brought her tremendous joy. She lovingly read with them, cooked for them when they visited, and created the kind of memories that will remain in their hearts for generations.

Lallage also had a wonderful sense of adventure and enjoyed traveling and attending family reunions in various states, where she could reconnect with those she loved. For many years, she especially enjoyed traveling with her niece and dear friend, Geraldine Clark. Whether through her faith, music, cooking, sewing, travels, or quiet moments with family, Lallage filled her life with love, purpose, and service to others. Her family will forever treasure the warmth, traditions, and beautiful memories she leaves behind.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Calvin B. Clements; three brothers, Edward Doris Lowe, Fred Lowe, Charles Lowe and Curtis Lowe and her sisters, Isabelle Davenport, Mae Lizzie Chambers, Magalene Elder, Rosa Lee Smith and Annie Lowe.

Great-Grandchildren, Carson Parker of Charlotte, NC; Caiden Parker of Charlotte, NC; Camryn Parker of Charlotte, NC; Camaya Parker of Charlotte, NC; Ayanna Byrd of Kings Mountain, NC; Allen Byrd III of Kings Mountain, NC; Kyrie Byrd of Kings Mountain, NC; Nathan Degree of Alexandria, VA; Mya Degree of Alexandria, VA; and Miles Degree of NC and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28 (NIV)
