Obituary

CANTRELL T. D. WELDON passed away on October 30, 2023. He was a kind and affectionate person who touched the lives of everyone who knew him. Cantrell was born on February 12, 1996, at Georgia Baptist Hospital in Atlanta, GA, to Yolanda Thomas and the late Barenzis Weldon.

Cantrell had a happy childhood filled with love. He had six siblings, Naeem Puckett, Na'keria Thomas, Se'corra Puckett, Deborius Thomas, Autumn Thomas, and Patience Reddick. Cantrell was blessed to have a big family who loved him dearly. His aunts, Daphne Thomas and Kimberly Thomas, uncles, John Thomas and William (Ren) Thomas, and cousins, Tamarkus Thomas, Tamisha Thomas, Travion Thomas, Nyquavious French, and Quanisha Jeffries, gave him an abundance of love. He always had his loyal companion, Isis, by his side.

Cantrell was particularly close to his grandmother, who raised him, and his mother, also his best friend. He grew up with his two cherished cousins, Misha and Mark, and his aunt Dee, who was always just a phone call away.

Cantrell, affectionally known as "Ken. K," was always resourceful and determined to succeed. He discovered his talent for hairdressing at a young age and never had to work a conventional job. His sole ambition was to lead a lavish lifestyle, earn a substantial income, and provide for his loved ones. Cantrell was a life-size Ken Doll, always conscious of his appearance and took pride in his unmatched fashion sense and style. He believed that the world was his runway, and he was always ready to showcase his flair.

Ken. K was outgoing, sociable, and gifted with a natural ability to connect with people. He enjoyed attending parties and socializing with his wide circle of friends. In his free time, he was fond of drawing and maintaining his bright white smile.

With his warmth and kindness, Cantrell was always ready to offer a helping hand. He had many close friends, acquaintances, and loved ones. Cantrell's passing has left a void in the lives of all who knew him, and he will be deeply missed.

Letter to My Grandma

To Yvonne, Whom I Call "Mama," Thank You
For Loving Me Unconditionally
From A Baby, To A Kid, To Adult,
You Always Cherished Me.
Now I May Be Gone Physically,
But Don't Cry, Just Think Of Every Memory.
Out Of All The People In The World, You Always Believed In Me.
I Always Wanted To Pay You Back, But Time Here Is Done And I Am Free.
Just Think Of Me On Vacation Or Outside.
I Loved You Deeply So You Know I Will Never Leave Your Side.
There Will Be A Day To Come When We Will Meet Again,
So Don't Be Sad, God Said My Plan Here On Earth Has Been Done,
But My New Life After Earth Has Just Begun.

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing as I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.
