

FOR ALL PARENTS

*I'll lend you for a little time, a child of mine," he said.
For you to love while he lives, and mourn when he is dead.
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three;
But will you, 'til I call him back, take care of him for me?*

*He will bring his charms to gladden you, and shall his stay be brief,
You'll have loving memories as a solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return one day.
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.*

*I have looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the throngs that crowd life's lane, I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain.
Nor hate me when I come to call, to take him back again.*

*I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, thy will be done."
For all the joy thy child shall bring, the risks of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may;
And for the happiness we've known will ever gratefully stay.*

*But shall the angels call for him much sooner than we planned,
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.*
