IF YOU COULD SEE ME NOW

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear, though you may not understand why I'm no longer there. Remember my spirit,
That's the real me. I'm still very much alive,
Oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper,
dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, and nothing could compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday, I'll meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show the way.
So, please don't cry because we will meet again someday.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Vivian C. Grant was born on May 14, 1945, in Birmingham, Alabama to the late Shedrick Benson and Fannie Wiley Benson. She was lovingly raised in the Collegeville Community of Birmingham, where she developed a strong foundation of faith, family, and resilience.

Vivian was a devoted member of Friendship Baptist Church, where she found spiritual nourishment and lifelong fellowship. A hardworking and dedicated individual, she proudly retired from Birmingham Stove and Range, where she spent many years committed to her craft and colleagues.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Albert Leon Grant; her siblings, Dorothy Redwine, John Benson, and Betty Neal; and her cherished son, Alonzo Campbell.

Vivian departed this life peacefully on Tuesday, July 15, 2025, at Emory Decatur Hospital in Decatur, Georgia. Her presence, warmth, and wisdom will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and family. Cherishing her memory are her siblings, Herman Benson (Alberta), Arthur Benson (Lucille), Mary Carmichael (John); her loving children, Jennifer Benson Holmes of Riverdale, GA, Anthony Benson (LaShetta), of Birmingham, AL, Richard Campbell (Quetta) of Birmingham, AL, Tyjunna Glover (Anthony) of Bassett, VA; eleven grandchildren; twenty-one great-grandchildren; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

- Precious Memories -

She Was Different

She was different, she was special
Unique in a thousand ways,
She was giving, she was loving,
And we'll miss her all our days.

She knew sorrow in great measures
And was stung by illness, too.
But neither could defeat her,
Nothing her faith subdue.

Her legacy was friendship
She was so giving of her time,
Her bequest was her faith in God,
Her family, and all mankind.

And so instead of mourning
As we remember her this hour,
We really should be celebrating
The blooming of a flower.
