

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day, but there's an
Ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Love,
Zoe and Amir

In Our Hearts

We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.

Love,
Mom, Shonda and Doogie

Obituary

MS. TIFFANY YALANDE KING was born on June 29, 1981, to the late Moses Harold King and Yolanda Jean (Thomas) King.

At an early age, she confessed Christ and joined Cathedral of Faith Church of God in Christ, where she remained throughout her life. Tiffany attended Atlanta public schools, where she forged lifelong friendships. True to her personality, she often worked in customer service—always offering an infectious smile and helping hand.

Tiffany made friends everywhere she went and was often the “life of the party!” Her love for family and laughter was the core of her heart. Her love of conversation made it easy to befriend her. To her family, she was affectionately known as “Puff.” Some of her favorite things involved all things GLAM—known for her big, beautiful hair, hoop earrings, and flawless makeup; not to mention, her love for MUSIC and football—always cheering on her Atlanta Falcons.

Tiffany was preceded in death by her father, the late Moses Harold King.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her devoted mother, Yolanda Jean King; two children, Zoe Mariah Watkins and Amir Elijah Watkins; sister, Janekia “Shonda” (Desmond) Mitchell of Rainbow City, Alabama; brother, Ajani “Doogie” King of Lithia Springs, Georgia; niece, Layla Mitchell; loving nephews, Adarius King of Rainbow City, Alabama and Rashaun “Ray” King of Okinawa, Japan; aunt, Deborah Parks of Gadsden, Alabama; uncles, Reginald (Mary) Thomas of Gadsden, Alabama; Jerry Thomas of Gadsden, Alabama; and George (Margie) King of Huntsville, Alabama; a host of loving cousins; godmother, Jacqueline Meridy of Atlanta, Georgia; and special childhood friends, LaVon Dillon of Georgia and Natasha Ervin of South Carolina.
