Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much for whatever part.*

Pastor Christ Wyatt, Officiating

Obituary

*“For this God is our God forever and ever;
He will be our guide even to the end.”
Psalms 42:14*

Cordero Laquarsto Wyatt was born September 15, 1988 to Linda Wyatt and the late Herbert Pennington in Shreveport, LA.

He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age at New Eastside Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor George Spears.

He attended school in the Desoto Parish School System.

He was employed at Tyson Foods.

Cordero aka “Money Man” was also a musical artist. He is known for songs such as “Flawless”, “Celebrity Mode”, “65 Money Chain”, “Share that b like a pizza”.

Cordero loved the idea of him and everyone else making money and winning in life. Being around family was something that he enjoyed the most.

On December 23, 2024, the Lord called Cordero from his earthly home to his heavenly home. He is preceded in death by his father, Herbert Pennington; maternal grandparents, Alberta Wyatt Jones and Rufus Stevenson; paternal grandparents, Leida S. Sumner & Hershey Pennington; aunt, Belinda Wyatt Flowers; and uncle, Albert Wyatt.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Linda Wyatt; fourteen siblings, Anita Fuller, Johnny Wyatt, Sonya Wyatt, Wiley Wyatt, Charlotte Wyatt, Mechico Howard, Kemo Wyatt (Angela), Brandon Wyatt, Theresa Pennington, Shardae Brokenberry, Freda Pennington, Matthew Pennington, Marcus Wayne Johnson, and Moresa Powell; five aunts, Alberta Bell Wyatt, Penny Wyatt, Zelma Wyatt, Vickie Wyatt, and Candy Jones; an uncle, Willie Jones (Ada); two childhood friends, Jeremy “J-Roc” White and Latreyvion Cartwright; and a host of nieces, nephews, family,

Recessional

*You have been with me all your life.
Mama will deeply miss you,
Missing your smiles, your jokes, your videos,
And you coming home asking me what I need.
Most of all I will miss your hugs.
I will miss calling my siblings looking for you.
All the conversations about the Lord,
Praying with you and telling you that there
Is so much joy in the Lord.
We talk about the angels and how they protect us from all harm and danger,
And that God will be with us always
Even until the time of death.*

Love,
Mama

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,*

*The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,*

*You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Love,
Your Siblings

*My favorite nephew is gone,
God call him home.
I can't see the smile on his face,
He make me happy, He made me smile,
And I love his money style.
He in Heaven looking down low,
In Heaven I know.*

I Love You,
Aunt Penny
