A glimpse into her life

Sister Lue Jean Demery was born on August 31, 1942, to the late John and Mary Lee Davidson, both of Coushatta, LA. Sister Lue Jean accepted Christ at an early age. She was devoted to serving God and was a member of the New Mt. Olive Church under the leadership of Pastor Robert C. White, Sr. She served as the church secretary for many years and was also a member of the choir. She served faithfully until her health declined.

Lue Jean attended Springville High School and later went to work for Sunbeam for over 30 years. She was a homemaker and devoted many hours to her family, especially her grandchildren and her great-grands.

She was preceded in death by her parents John and Mary Lee Davidson, both her maternal and paternal grandparents, and also her sister Alice Robinson.

Lue Jean was the definition of grace and class, always dressed to impress, setting the standard for elegance and leaving a legacy that will never be forgotten. She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories that will live on in her husband of 65 years, Minister Joe Willie Demery; her beautiful daughters, each a reflection of her love and strength Debra Hall (Roy), Ivy Smith (Randoll), Anita Taylor (Ben), Eileen Lewis (Chubby), Kathy McDuffy (Johnny), and special daughter Karen Smith (Billy) all of Coushatta, LA. Two Sisters Ella Demery of Coushatta, LA and Dorothy Davis (Joe) of Houston, Tx. Two brothers Earl Davidson of Houston, Tx and Ray Charles Davidson (Joyce) of Dallas, TX. Her 13 loving grandchildren, Victor Demery, Sr., Randoll Smith, Jr. (Stephanie), Orlando Demery, BJ Taylor (Ashley), Brandy Demery, Zavier Lewis (Shadonna), Kiywon Bonner, De'Condria Smith, Kadayshia Harris (Anthony), Vakedria Jones (Jamary), Adreus Taylor (LaCarsha), Diamond McDuffy, Trey McDuffy, and Maurice Brown (Teneshia), Lakeshia Hall, Brittany Solton (Jessie). 48 great-grandchildren; 10 great, great-grandchildren. 3 God-Children, Coy White, Tichina Newton, and Bobby White, Jr and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, friends, and community grandchildren.
