Tribute

To My Husband, My Best Friend, The Love of My Life

Where do I start? First, I want to thank God for you and for allowing us to have 22 years together. I want to thank God for giving us our happily ever after. George thank you for being a great provider and for protecting our family. Thank you for being everything our children needed you to be and more. Thank you for all the things you have taught me about life you always told me I made a man out of you, but you definitely made a woman out of me. We have had some happy times, fun times, some crazy times, some sad, we had a couple of struggles but through it all we loved each other and pulled the load together. I can honestly say we never had any hard times in our marriage and I'm truly grateful for that. You would always pull a rabbit out of a hat. I would never be able to put into words the love that my heart carries for you. You have been so much more than a husband to me, you have been my best friend. Just know you were my true meaning of love.

Forever, your wife Kristy

To our Daddy

Daddy, you had so much love to give, and you gave it all to us. In every hug, every word you showed us who we could be. You fought so hard for so long through pain you didn't deserve, you won the real victory Daddy. You're finally resting, you are at peace. We miss you more than we could ever explain, your voice, your strength, your love so true. Everything you taught us is how we will make it through. Your love, your understanding, your wisdom will live on inside of us forever. Now, we must figure out how to navigate life without you, calling you when something is wrong or simple needing advice about life, we know you were tired and needed your rest. We will forever miss and love you!

You showed us how to love, you taught us how to stand strong, and we will carry that with us every day as we keep moving on. Thank you Daddy for everything, for your love, your time, your care. We will honor you in how we live and feel you everywhere. We love you Daddy forever.

Love your daughters

To My Papa

I'm going to miss calling you and telling you about my day and you coming to my games being the loudest papa in the crowd. I love you and will miss you so much.

Love, your grandbaby Kennedi
