Reflections

On April 11, 1946 parents, Nuel and Hazel Waller Jordan of Brentwood, Tennessee, welcomed their son, Gentry Lee Jordan into the world. Gentry departed this life on October 22, 2024 at TriStar Stone Crest Medical Center.

He is preceded in death by parents Hazel Waller Jordan and Nuel Jordan; siblings, Nuel, Jr (infant), Hazel (infant), Marie Jordan Hendrix, and Metropolitan Nashville Police Department Officer, Curtis Jordan.

Gentry accepted Christ at an early age at Edmondson Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Brentwood, Tennessee.

Gentry was educated at Brentwood Elementary School and graduated from Natchez High School in 1966. He served in the United States Army and was honorably discharged. He was awarded the Purple Heart for his sacrifice after being wounded in Vietnam. When he returned from duty, he earned an Associate's Degree in Business from Draughon Business College.

From his first union to Marilyn (Rose) Locke, his son Stacey Lorenzo Jordan was born. He later married his wife, Vickie Rice Perdue, of over 30 years. They shared her two children Danny and Valerie Rowsey.

Over the course of his life, Gentry had a career with Third National Bank, serving in a leadership role. He would later change professions and became an independent trucker. He was an avid lover of football and a lifelong fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers. His other passion was Chevrolet Corvettes.

Gentry leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Vickie Jordan; son, Stacey L. Jordan; granddaughter, LaStacia Jordan; grandson Blake Timms; and great grandson, Landyn Lightford; sisters, Gwendolyn Jordan Owens and Mary Alice Jordan; nieces, Trella D. Hendrix and Kenyetta Owens-Gaddes; great nephews, Jhenair C. Gaddes and Jordan Owens Walker; Stepchildren, Danny (Gloria) Rowsey and Valerie (Jamie) Schooler; grandchildren, Gage Rowsey and Isabella Schooler; devoted friends Reggie, Clint, Jackie, Allen, Stephen and Woods; and a host of relatives and friends.
