Reflections

If I Should Go Tomorrow

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.

The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

On Saturday, November 30, 2024, William O. "Rooster" Blackmun received his wings, at the age of 85 at his home in Franklin, Williamson County Tennessee. William was born on April 27, 1939, in Franklin, Tennessee to the parents of William and Bessie Blackmun.

William was a member of the West Main Street Church of Christ. He was the owner and operator of Blackmun Hauling Service. He loved dump trucking, meeting and joking with others whom he knew and those he had never met before. Finally in November 2018 he retired after many years of doing this service.

He leaves to cherish in his living memory his wife, Ida Louise McKissack Blackmun of 64 years of marriage; brothers, Harlis Blackmun and Nathaniel Blackmun of Franklin, Tennessee; sister-in-law, Lucille (Ray) Buford of Franklin, Tennessee; devoted nieces, Earlean Leach and Wilma Harrison; devoted great nephew, Justin Harrison all of Franklin, Tennessee; nieces, nephews, cousins special thanks to Robert "Moochie" Harrison, and friends. Special Thanks to the former Buford Trucking owners and former employees and Vulcan Materials employees whom he also considered his special friends and family.
