Reflections

Remember Me

*Don't remember me with sadness, Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the fun, laughter and love we shared throughout the years.*

Now I am Happy That my life was worthwhile,

Knowing that I along the way and I made somebody smile.

When you are walking down the street and you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.

So please don't be sad Just because I'm out of sight,

Remember that I'm with you Each morning, noon and night.

William (Rabbit) Henry Murry, Jr. was born December 15, 1946 in Franklin, Tennessee to William H and Katie Ruth McKissack Murry. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother, Larry Murry and daughter, Sheila Renee' Murry.

William matriculated through the Williamson County School System and graduated from Natchez High School in 1964. While attending high school he was a Short Order Cook at West Point Restaurant in Downtown Franklin during the sixties. He later attended Tennessee State University to pursue his education.

William's jobs consisted of, Short Order Cook at West Point Restaurant, Downtown Franklin, CPS Manufacturing and Dixie Bearings, Nashville where he became a Supervisor. William confessed Christ later in life.

William (Rabbit) did marry and was divorced. From that union however, he had one daughter, Sheila Renee' Murry. Rabbit was always surrounded by family and was either with his sister Laverne or brother Albert. He is and was truly loved by family.

He is survived by his grandsons, Marcus Murry and Marcell Murry; great granddaughter, Ja'niyah Renee' Murry; brother, Albert (Daisy) Murry; sister, Laverne Holland; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and many cousins and friends.
