Reflections

John Willie "Rock" Terrell life came to an end on Saturday, January 11, 2025 at the age of 75 at Ascension Medical Group Saint Thomas in Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Terrell was born on June 18, 1949 in Williamson County, Tennessee to the parents of Mary Tom Johnson and John Willie Terrell. He was preceded in death by his wife and grandson as well as several other family members.

John better known to many "Rock" grew up in Franklin, Tennessee. He met and married Theresa Rena Terrell in 1972. John worked for Franklin Housing Authority for over 40 years until retiring. In which then he devoted the last of his years with The Williamson County Sheriff Department as a traffic patrol guard for Page Middle School. He loved his job and all of the families he encountered on a daily basis. Rock had a huge love for horseshoe throwing, hunting and the Greenbay Packers. He loved to gather and have a good time with family and friends. Rock later found his relationship with God and united with the New Brentwood Baptist Church. He loved his family, his kids and especially those grandkids. He will be deeply missed

He leaves to cherish his many memory his son, Omar (Delana) Terrell; daughters, LaFronda (Reggie) Simons, Tia (Vielka) Terrell and Quinia (Corey) Steele; grandchildren, Dantavia Collier, Zabria (Patrick) Hayland, Omarian (Kayla) Terrell, Anthony Grisby, Corey Steele, Jr., Adonnis Simon, Ambreona Garrett, Taylor Terrell, Reggie Brown, Jr., Desiray Sanchez, Jalen Sanchez and Phylicia Roan; great grandchildren, Keyleigh, Kadan, Dakota, Jaxon, Braxton, Atlaya, Kyler, Patrick, Jr. and Stella Terrell; god children, Brandy Sanford Nolan and Ouida Collins; siblings, Louise Branch, Fred (Delores) Terrell, Tony Terrell and Mary Terrell Dixon; in-laws, Tishie Ramey, Joyce Stone, Bobby (Alfreda) Sowell, Torez Sowell, Roberta Hornbeak and Alma Hornbeak; nieces, nephews, devoted nieces and nephews, Arrita Jenkins, Antonio Terrell, Sr., Arnita Turner, Clay Jenkins and Walter Jenkins, cousins and friends.
