Reflections

"Do Not Weep for Me, for I Am Free"

Do not weep for me, for I am free. I am with the Lord, where pain and sorrow cannot reach. My chains are gone, and my heart is at rest. I have fought the good fight I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

Mary Ann's journey reminds us that life is a precious gift and love is eternal. Though our hearts ache, we celebrate her peace, her laughter, and the legacy she leaves behind.

Mary Ann Pointer's life came to an end on Saturday, November 8, 2025, at Williamson Medical Center in Franklin, Tennessee, at the age of 67.

A proud native of Franklin, Tennessee who graduated in 1976 from Franklin High School. Mary Ann Pointer lived a life filled with purpose, laughter, and compassion. She was born on June 23, 1958, in Franklin, Williamson County, Tennessee, to the late Lewis Pointer and Inez Baugh. She dedicated many years of service as a Williamson County school bus driver, ensuring children made it safely to and from school each day. Her patience, kindness, and humor made her more than a driver; she was family to every student she met. After retiring, Mary Ann continued her mission of giving by joining Franktown Open Hearts, where her love for helping others shined even brighter.

In 2016, Mary Ann professed her faith in God and was baptized at Locust Ridge Primitive Baptist Church, a decision that reflected her deep belief in love, grace, and service to others. Her faith became a guiding light in her life and a source of strength that inspired everyone around her.

Mary Ann was known for her big heart, generous spirit, and unforgettable sense of humor. She loved traveling, cooking, and sharing laughter with friends and family. Whether she was planning a trip, preparing a meal, or lending a helping hand, Mary Ann did it all with joy. Her infectious energy made everyone around her feel seen, valued, and loved.

She will be remembered as a woman who loved deeply, gave selflessly, and lived fully, a constant reminder that kindness and laughter are among life's greatest gifts.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving daughter, Devona (Rodney) Hardy; beloved granddaughter, Lianysa Hardy; nieces, Pamela Pinter, Vivian Pointer and Wilma Ann Pointer; nephew, Peter Pointer; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, and cousins. She will be especially remembered by her devoted cousin, Gwen (Tom) Bright, and her dear friend, Wayne Christy, along with many other friends who became family throughout her life. cousins and many friends.

Maryann's memory will forever live in the hearts of her family, friends and all those whose lives she touched.

*"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes'
And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, Neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away."*
