Reflections

Larry Eugene Booker was born on September 15, 1954 in Franklin TN, to the late M. A. McKissack and the late Katherine Booker. Larry was preceded in death by his parents, brother, Claude Perkins, sisters, Janice Booker and Mary Katheryne Dixon.

“Jay” or “Jay Bird” as Larry was known by family and childhood friends was educated in the Williamson County School System and graduated from Franklin High School in 1972. He then joined the United States Air Force in July of 1972. Larry served his country honorably, earning several awards, including an Air Force Commendation Medal and a Meritorious Service Medal. He retired from the United States Air Force with the rank of Master Sergeant in July of 1996; while stationed at Shaw Air Force Base in Sumter, South Carolina.

Larry leaves to mourn his passing: devoted sister, Emma Booker; brothers, John (Beverly) Booker, Charles Henry Booker and devoted brother, Tony E. Terrell; devoted nephews, Danny Booker, Derrick Booker, Keitha Booker and Keiwan Booker; devoted friends, Carl Steele, Willie Highsmith and Helen Highsmith; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Do Not Stand at My Grave and Weep
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there.
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn’s rain.
When you awaken in the morning’s hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there.
I did not die.
Mary Elizabeth Frye
