

The Magic of a Mother's Touch

*You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one will ever fill
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.*

Proverbs 31:25-28

Strength and honor are her clothing;
She shall rejoice in time to come.
She opens her mouth with wisdom,
And on her tongue is the law of kindness.
She watches over the ways of her household,
And does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up and call her blessed;
Her husband also, and he praises her:

Mothers nurture us with love and guide us in the path of growth which leads to "LOVE AND WISDOM." She is our most precious gift from GOD!

Reflection of Life

Carriel White Bryant Zeigler, 85, daughter of the late Samuel White, Sr. and Estell Johnson White, was born August 21, 1937, in Holly Hill, South Carolina. She was called from labor to reward on Sunday, May 7, 2023, at the Medical University of South Carolina Health, Orangeburg, South Carolina. She was a resident of Calhoun Convalescent Center, St. Matthews, South Carolina.

Carriel Zeigler was the sole surviving child of the late Samuel White, Sr and the late Estelle Johnson White.

Carriel was a loving, caring, protective mother to her three children. She knew that each child had to be shown love in his or her own caring way. Carriel was the aunt who everyone loved. She touched the lives of each of her nieces and nephews in a special, fun and loving way. She was also the aunt that knew how to give that tough love whenever she felt that you needed it.

Carriel grew up in the Providence Community on her parents’ farm, where she was fortunate to see and be loved by her siblings, nieces and nephews on a regular basis. She attended the public schools of Holly Hill.

At an early age, she accepted Jesus the Christ as her Lord and Savior and joined Rock Hill African Methodist Episcopal Church, Vance, South Carolina.

Carriel was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Rube Mae Bryant; son, Harry Lee Bryant; and her siblings: Calvin (Birtie) White, James (Lula Bell) White, Muriel (Edward) Prezzy, Louise (Arthur) Fairnot, Samuel (Mary) White, Laura (Wilson) Keitt, George (Rosa) White, Bertha (Robert Lee) Shuler, and Eva White.,

Carriel leaves to cherish her loving and fond memories: her son, Jerome Bryant of Santee, SC; three grandsons: Delvin Ricardo Bryant of Providence, SC, Edrian Donyae Wright of Columbia, SC and Kendrick Devon Wright of Virginia Beach, VA; her beautiful granddaughter, Seibia Waring-Glenn; four great-grandchildren: Donyae Edrian Wright, Alaia Wright, Bali Rue-B Glenn; son-in-law, James Wright; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and dear friends.
