

Time to Love

Grandma, I will miss your smile, your hugs and your laugh
(I loved that laugh-full of joy and life)
Most of all, I'll never forget your dedication to love.

The Bible has parables, teachings and lessons
With the greatest emphasis on love.

Grandma, you were kind, giving and genuinely amazing.
You lived God's decree of loving everyone.
You didn't discriminate in sharing your love,
In fact, where others may be inclined to look the other way,
You took people in and made them feel like family.

Even so, with many lives touched,
You never gave any less love to anyone especially your family, friends and neighbors.
People flocked to you to find that type of love and to know someone cared about them.

You lived well in Christ; you loved well on earth,
and you taught us that there is always time to love.

Loving submitted,
Your Granddaughter, Meeghan Abraham
