

A Gift From God

Written by Gale Lucille Antley (niece)

*"I give you this precious life"
Said, God to a mother one day.
"Now take this precious life,
Home with you to stay."*

*"I give you this precious life
One so meek and mild,
Take care of this precious life,
Because, it's only a child."*

*"I give you this precious life
And my lessons it must learn
Teach this precious life
When getting-its getting must be earned."*

*"I give you this precious life
Do educate it well
Teach it to strive for heaven
By shunning hell!"*

*"I give you this precious life
That has now become an adult,
You must stand back now
And watch the results!"*

*"You may care for this adult
And live as one big family
This adult may remain with you
For five years, maybe seventy-three."*

*"Time and tide waits for no man
And nothing remains the same
One day I'll call my children home
And they'll answer by name."*

*"I give you this precious life
Please don't think hard of me
When I return one day,
To call this precious life-to eternity!"*

Reflection of Life

Ms. Beulah “Cousin Mae” Williams was born October 19, 1935, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina, the daughter of the late Idella Williams and granddaughter of the late Jerome and Maggie Williams. She entered into eternal rest on Sunday, June 4, 2023 after an extended illness.

She attended the public schools in the Great Branch Community of Orangeburg County. She joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church at a very early age and attended faithfully until her health failed.

She enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She loved playing the game of Trouble and taking and sharing pictures of others. Cousin Mae enjoyed traveling and watching football.

She was preceded in death by her parents; as well as a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

She leaves to cherish fond memories of her cousins, church members and friends.
