

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Reflection of Life

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight,

I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all of them also that love his appearing, 2 Timothy 4:6-8

During the quiet of the afternoon hours of Tuesday, September 12, 2023, Mamie Ruth Felder Void peacefully entered eternal rest at her home in Rowesville, South Carolina.

The life of Mrs. Mamie Felder Void began in Orangeburg County. She was born on February 25, 1953, the young child of the late Daniel Felder, Jr., and Rosa Lee Gardner Felder.

Mamie was educated in the public schools of Orangeburg County and was a 1971 graduate of Wilkinson High School. While in school, she was a student bus driver and a member of the marching band. She also served as Treasurer and vice-president for her class reunion. After graduating from high school, she attended Claflin College (University).

Growing up in a devoted Christian family, Mamie accepted Christ at an early age and joined Andrew Chapel Baptist Church, where she diligently and faithfully served as an usher. Later, she moved her membership to Brown Chapel AME Church, her mother's church. After affiliating herself with Brown Chapel, Mamie became continually active with the Women's Missionary Society. She also served on Stewardess Board No. 3.

Mamie loved giving of herself and was always involved in the programs of the missionaries. She was very visible when the missionaries had a project and always participated. She loved being around the children, especially in the playground area. Mamie was the Queen representing Brown Chapel's Missionary Society at the Orangeburg Area WMS Banquet and Parade of Queens. She served as Treasurer of the Orangeburg Area WMS.

Realizing the importance of work, Mamie was employed most of her teenage years and adult life. She worked on various jobs and retired from the Orangeburg County Consolidated School District after 29 dedicated years as an Administrative Assistant and Bus Driver.

Mamie's led an interesting and fulfilling life. The sparkle in her eyes was her grandchildren. She traveled to many places to include Germany, Texas, Virginia.

Being a Christian, Mamie's life was devoted to serving Christ by serving others willingly, with love and dedication. She volunteered with the Lunch Program in Rowesville, SC, for the children during the school break and other activities for the children and senior citizens.

Mamie was formerly married to Terrell Gene Void, and they were blessed with three sons.

Mamie was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Daniel Adam Felder, III; paternal grandparents, Daniel and Mamie Felder; and her maternal grandparents, Adam and Lillie Gardner.

Mamie's life, filled with fond memories, will forever be cherished by her three sons: Jarrett Terrell Void, Rowesville, SC, Terrell Gene Void, Jr. (Kim), Durham, NC, and Veon Andreas Void, Orangeburg, SC; her loving and devoted sister, Carolyn J.F. Groom (Richard), Rowesville, SC; ten grandchildren, Chavier Void, Destiny Smith, Kewishawn Void, Kwajah Void, Kwiahrra Void, Kwiyou Void, Kwixaria Void, Myles Void, Quianna Lewis and Quisha Lewis; sister-in-law, Rosa Felder; two aunts, Gloria Gardner and Dorothy Felder; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, classmates and friends, her fur babies; Ring Eye, Mikey, and rigger.
