

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I am gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear now all is gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life.

Reflection of Life

Mrs. Margaret Haynes Amaker was born June 1, 1933, in Calhoun County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Henry Clay Haynes, Sr. and Mrs. Lottie Bovain Haynes.

She was educated in the public schools of Calhoun County. For many years, she worked for various families in the Orangeburg County area.

She was a member of Edisto Fork United Methodist Church for many years; however, after her health began to decline, she started attending Olive Grove Missionary Baptist Church with her children and became a member.

Margaret entered Holy Matrimony with Frank James Amaker, Sr. in 1949. This union was blessed with six children: Aline Williams, Margaree Mays, Annie B. Wade, Carrie M. Amaker, Henrietta Watts and Frank James Amaker, Jr.

Her husband preceded her in death in February 2016.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, five daughters: Aline Williams of Brooklyn, NY, Margaree Mays, Annie (Isadore) Wade both of St. Matthews, SC, Carrie Amaker of Orangeburg, SC, Henrietta (Macon) Watts of Cope, SC; one son, Frank James Amaker, Jr of Orangeburg, SC; one adopted daughter, Jeannette Dukes of Orangeburg, SC; bother-in-law, Harry Dukes of Charleston, SC; ten grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and dear friends.
