She leaves to cherish her memory: three children, Christopher (Marla) Jones of McDonough, GA, Chrysanthia "Sandy" Jones of Atlanta, GA and Josephine Hall of Columbus, GA; six grandchildren, Kiersten Jones, Emerie Jones, Zikia Jones-Martin, Olivia Jones, Tina (Andre) Torbert and Latoya Daniels; five great-grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; four sisters, Inez (James) Boutwell of Syracuse, NY, Atheria Morgan of Tallassee, AL, Joanne Askew of Loachapoka, AL and Beatrice Harris of Auburn, AL; six brothers, Curtis Lockhart, Tom Hall, Jr. both of Loachapoka, AL, Herman Askew of Tallassee, AL, Gregory Hall of Syracuse, NY, Garryson Hall of Richmond, VA and Billy Mack Jackson of Auburn, AL; two aunts, Katie Bass of Loachapoka and Annie Byrd Webb of Atlanta, GA; a loving cousin, Matilda Oliver of Opelika; a special friend, Angela Debrow-Alexander of Auburn, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

When I Come

*When I Come To The End of the Road
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in the gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your heads bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's Plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*
