

- See Yourself When All Is New -
(Song 139)

Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a new earthly start,

The song of our praises
Will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

"We thank you, our God, for all you have done.
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong."

Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now will awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join ours with
Ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

"We thank you, our God, for all you have done.
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong."

- The Obituary -

Anthony Leon Frazier, a cherished husband, father, grandfather, son, and friend, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 23, 2024, at Baptist South Health in Montgomery, Alabama.

Born on April 25, 1969, Anthony's 55 years of life were marked by his unwavering dedication to his family, his passion for technology, and the joy he brought to everyone he met.

A proud graduate of Opelika High School's Class of 1987, Anthony went on to further his education at RETS Electronic Institute in Birmingham, Alabama. His intellect and natural aptitude for mechanics and electronics led him to serve his country in the U.S. Navy. After his honorable service, he carried his talents into the civilian workforce as a skilled machine operator at Briggs and Stratton.

Anthony's hands were rarely still; he found joy and purpose in repairing cars, appliances, computers, and various electronic items. He was the go-to person in his community for fixing anything that had a circuit, and he often volunteered his time to help neighbors, friends, and family with their mechanical and electronic needs.

He is survived by a loving family who will forever remember his big smile and hearty laugh. His wife, Allegra Frazier of Atlanta, GA, will miss his warmth and companionship. His children, Andre Frazier and Antwain Frazier, will carry forward his legacy of kindness and ingenuity. Anthony's parents, Thomas and Deborah Frazier, will hold close the memory of their son's generous spirit. His grandson, August, and granddaughter, Avani, will grow up hearing stories of their grandfather's wisdom and humor.

Anthony's extended family includes his stepchildren, Alexis Cage, LaQuita Sanders, Brad (Kristol) Edwards, and Chris Mitchell, who will remember him as a guiding presence; sister, Felica Sharpe; brother, Demetrius (Lauriette) Frazier, will cherish the bonds of sibling love and shared experiences; nieces, Capri Frazier and Jordan (Kimdrick "KJ") Feaster, will miss his encouragement and support. He also leaves behind a mother-in-law, Mary (Woodrow) Jackson, sisters-in-law, Veronica (Todd) Chaloupka, Beverly Moore, Jody Dowdell, Jennifer Dowdell (Tynya Beverly), and Jennifer (Joseph) Lockhart, and a brother-in-law, Gregory Dowdell, all of whom held special places in his heart.

Anthony's life was enriched by the presence of his special friend, Rory France, and a host of other relatives and friends who were touched by his friendly, handy, and intelligent nature. He was a man who could light up a room with his presence and fill the silence with his infectious laughter.

Throughout his life, Anthony was known for his friendly demeanor, always ready with a greeting or a joke. His intelligence was a beacon that drew others to him, seeking advice or just enjoying his conversation. Above all, his handy skills were a testament to his belief that with the right tools and knowledge, anything could be fixed—a philosophy he applied to both objects and the challenges of life.

As we bid farewell to Anthony Leon Frazier, we celebrate a life well-lived, a life filled with purpose, love, and an abundance of laughter. His memory will continue to inspire those who knew him, and his legacy will live on in the many lives he touched. Anthony's story does not end with his passing but is carried forward in the hearts of those who loved him.
