- The Obituary -

Robbin Jean Dumas, affectionately known as "R-Jean" to her friends and family, passed away peacefully on Monday, November 4, 2024, at her home in Auburn, Alabama. Born in Lee County, Alabama, on March 24, 1949, R-Jean lived a life marked by love, faith, and a gentle spirit that touched all those around her. Her departure leaves behind a legacy of warmth and devotion that will be fondly remembered and deeply missed.

R-Jean was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. J.T. Stinson, Sr., and Ms. Alma Dumas, as well as her brother, Johnny Hubbard, Sr. Her memory will be cherished by her loving children: Katrina (Francis) West and Marzine (Pamela) Dumas, both of Auburn, Alabama; step-daughter, Felicia Philpot; she was a proud and doting grandmother to seven grandchildren, Katrice Dumas, Latisha Byrd, Jaden Dumas, Searra Dumas, Drew West, Kendra Brown, and Ronessa (Eddie) Barlow; her great-grandchildren, who brought her immense joy, will also hold her in their hearts.

R-Jean's siblings, who shared in the tapestry of her life, include her six sisters, Linda (Ben) Gardner, Charlotte (Alfred) Barnes, Caroline (James) Morris, Connie (Reaco) Echols, Cherrie (Arthur) Harris, and Cynthia (Kent) McCurdy, as well as her three brothers, Andrew, J.T. Jr., and Jerry Stinson; two aunts, Mary Dumas and Cartey Conwell; special friend, Charlie Mae Parker; along with a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives, will continue to honor her memory.

Throughout her life, R-Jean was supported by three devoted friends: Walter Philpot, Mary Woodall, and Sally Strickland. Their steadfast companionship was a source of great comfort and happiness for her, and they, among many others, will feel the absence of her kind and loving presence.

R-Jean's formative years were spent at Lee County Training School, where she cultivated the knowledge and values that would guide her throughout her life. Her passion for cooking was well known, especially her banana pudding, which was a cherished treat among her family and friends. R-Jean found joy in the simple pleasures of life, such as watching cooking shows, shopping, and being in the company of her beloved family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A faithful member of Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Auburn, Alabama, R-Jean's faith was an integral part of her life. Her commitment to her church community was a testament to her faith-filled nature, and she embodied the teachings of kindness and compassion in her everyday actions.

- The Fallen Limb -

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.
