- The Obituary -

Robert Lewis Levett, a man of faith and joy, passed away on Thursday, November 7, 2024, at the East Alabama Medical Center. Born in Macon County, Alabama, on February 14, 1962, Robert's life was one of love, spirited energy, and unwavering devotion to his community.

Robert's early years in Macon County were filled with the warmth and guidance of his loving parents, Mr. Sylvester and Mrs. Annie Lizzie Buchanan Levett, Sr. both of whom preceded him in death. He was also preceded by his three sisters, Betty Pierson, Barbara Felton, and Hazel Pulliam; two brothers, Andrew Levett and Nathaniel Levett. The family bonds were strong and nurtured Robert's caring nature.

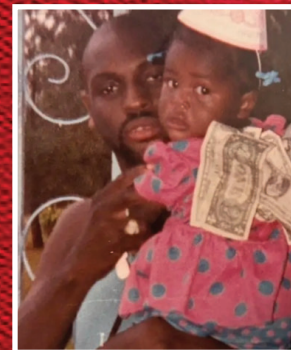

A proud graduate of the Tuskegee Institute, Robert carried the pride and knowledge from his alma mater throughout his life, applying his education in various facets of his community involvement.

At an early age, he united with St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Society Hill, Alabama. Later, he joined the Oak Grove Baptist Church in Auburn, AL. He served faithfully on the Usher Board and was a dedicated Oak Grove Male Chorus member.

Robert's interests reflected the simplicity of joy found in nature and the thrill of sportsmanship. He was an avid Alabama "Roll Tide" fan, a passion that often brought him together with friends and family, cheering on his favorite team with enthusiasm. The tranquility of fishing was another of Robert's pleasures, providing him a time for reflection and a connection to the outdoors. He worked at West Point Pepperell for over 11 years and at Auburn University. But he was best known on the west side of Auburn for his dedicated work at The Corner Market.

Those who knew Robert will remember him as a loving and spirited individual, a man with a faith-filled heart that guided his actions and interactions. His presence was a comfort, and his laughter a remedy to the worries of life. Robert had the unique ability to uplift those around him, making every moment shared a treasured memory.

He leaves to cherish his precious and unforgettable memory: two children, Tanisha (Jamarlo) Alford and Tashae Cammon both of Opelika, AL; five grandchildren, Jamiya Alford, Tymir Alford, TyQuan Roberson, Micah Roberson and ZaNiah Hooks all of Opelika, AL; one sister, Virgina Fulton of Waterbury, CT; six brothers, Sylvester (Linda) Levett, Jr., Charles (Lajuana) Levett, Sr., Reverend Chester (Pat) Levett, Reverend Clinton Levett, Leon Levett all of Auburn, AL and Charles (Janis) McIntosh, Sr. of Columbus, SC; one aunt, Annie Lois Wagner of Auburn, AL; one sister-in-law, Ernestine Levett of Auburn, AL; one brother-in-law, John Felton, Sr. of Auburn, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In Loving Memory

I will miss you always Uncle.
My heart has been left broken since the day you had to go
And the memories I treasure dearly are in the tears that still flow.
You're in my thoughts every day and that's how it will always be
For you may be up in Heaven now but you'll always be with me.
If only I could have the chance to see your face once more
Or hear your voice one final time just like it was before.
The day that Heaven calls for me will be a relief from all this pain
I'll run to you with open arms and we will meet again.
Although each day brings challenges and things that are unknown,
You need not face them by yourself or deal with them alone.
For others care about you and will keep you close in prayer.
And above all, God will guide you for His love is always there.
May the work I've done, speak for me!
