- OBITUARY -

Jarrett Leandra Jackson, a man of unwavering faith and gentle kindness, departed from this life on Monday, November 11, 2024, at the age of 30. Born on October 6, 1994, in Lee County, Alabama, Jarrett's friendly demeanor and compassionate spirit were evident from a young age. He passed away in Piedmont-Midtown in Columbus, Georgia, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories.

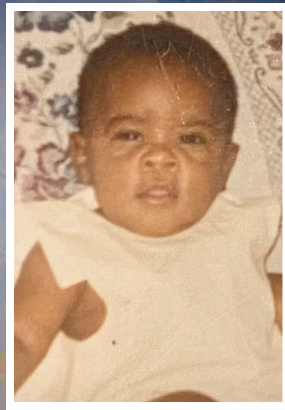

A proud graduate of Opelika High School's Class of 2013, Jarrett was known for his dedication to learning and his readiness to lend a hand. After completing his education, he served his community with honor and commitment through his work at the United States Postal Service for two years.

Jarrett's life was a testament to his faith and the joy he found in fellowship. He was a devoted member of the Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

A lover of life's simple pleasures, Jarrett found delight in music and watching television, a pastime that allowed him to unwind and enjoy the stories of others. However, his passion for good food and cooking was where his creativity truly shone. Friends and family often gathered around the table to savor the delicious dishes he prepared with love.

Those who knew Jarrett will remember him as a faith-filled individual whose friendly nature made him a beloved figure. His gentle approach to life, combined with his ability to connect with others, made him a treasured friend and confidant. The words that best describe Jarrett—faith-filled, friendly, gentle—are more than mere adjectives; they are the essence of a soul who touched the lives of all he encountered.

He leaves to cherish his memory: mother, Lisa L. Jackson of West Point, GA; father, Christopher Bryant of Opelika, AL; two brothers, Christopher Menefee and Cornelius Welch both of Opelika, AL; maternal grandmother, Eva Mae Jackson of West Point, GA; special aunt, Kim Jackson of Loganville, GA; nine aunts, Ann Bandy of Opelika, AL, Ester (Billy) Kirk of Opelika, AL, Ethel (Clifford) Todd of Valley, AL, Rosie Bryant of Opelika, AL, Cynthia Bryant of Opelika, AL, Jessie Carlisle of Florida, Bertha Wallace of Opelika, AL, Prescilla Miller of Lanett, AL and Annie Williams of Opelika, AL; one uncle, Steve (Vera) Jackson of Gardendale, AL; one great-uncle, Wilbert (Enna) Patrick of Opelika, AL; one great-aunt, Ida Lue Melton of Opelika, AL; a host of cousins and friends.

- TO MY SON -

I may not be able to hold you in my arms right now or see your handsome face and your smile, but I will hold you in my heart every minute and every hour of every day. I will get to see you again. I love you Jarrett, always and forever.

- GONE TO SOON -

Our beloved son, grandson, nephew, brother, and cousin, Jarred Jackson, has gone to be with the Lord. He was in many ways an Angel. Sent to this earth by God to fulfill a certain purpose, and when that purpose was fulfilled, God called him home. As we grieve his loss, we must understand that God makes no mistakes! So therefore, we will proclaim God's name in all of the earth, until every tongue and tribe speak out His word. We must mean it when we say, "Let Your will be done on earth as it is done in heaven". We will miss him terribly! However, through the grace of God, we will get through this. Like a comet blazing 'cross the evening sky;

*Like a rainbow fading in the twinkling of an eye;
Like a perfect flower that is just beyond your reach;*

GONE TOO SOON.
