RECESSIONAL

*Don't remember me with sadness, don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the good times, shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented that my life it was worthwhile,
Because I know by loving you That I made you smile.
When you are walking down the street and you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you Every morning, noon and night.*

- THE OBITUARY -

Jessie James Watts, affectionately known by many as “JDub,” passed away peacefully at his home in Auburn, Alabama, on Thursday, December 5, 2024, at the age of 68.

Born on April 17, 1956, in Lee County, Alabama, to the late Mr. Johnny Lee and Mrs. Thelma Billingsley Watts.

At an early age he confessed Christ and united with the Macedonia Baptist Church in Gold Hill, Alabama.

Jessie’s professional life was marked by his reputation as a hard worker, a trait admired by all who knew him. His dedication to his job was matched only by his love for Auburn “War Eagle” football, which brought him joy and excitement every season. Jessie’s enthusiasm on game days was contagious, and his spirit embodied the true essence of a loyal fan.

An avid fisherman, Jessie found solace and pleasure in the quiet hours spent by the water, rod in hand, waiting for the next big catch. His prowess at the game of dominos was well-known amongst friends and family, and many will fondly recall the laughter and friendly competition that accompanied their games.

While Jessie’s passing leaves a void that cannot be filled, his memory will be cherished by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. He is preceded in death by his beloved daughter, Rochunda Lott and his dear sister, Penny Watts. Their reunion in eternity is a comforting thought to those who grieve.

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Dorothy Watts of Opelika, AL; two children, Jarvis (Tyeshia) Lott of Smiths Station, AL and Travis Henry (Carrie Campbell) of Polk County, FL; fifteen grandchildren, Deundra, Lyric, Lauryn, Travis, Jr., Paris, Essence, Evan, Rhyann, Dallas, Ambrielle, Amiyah, Jackson, Zykeria, Jhace and SaMauri; two great grandchildren, Mason and Kyrie; two brothers, Joseph (Mary) Watts of Waverly, AL and Alphonso Williams of Grand Rapids, MI and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
