Recessional

Dear Daddy,
My heart still aches that you're gone. But it fills with all the love you gave me and my siblings. As I close my eyes and wish you were here, then open them up to all the love you showed me and see how you are not suffering anymore.

But as I go back and think about how you were telling me that you love me so much and that you were ready to get out of that hospital and go shopping with me for my birthday warmed my heart. Then when I told it was okay to go, I was honest and I said it was okay to leave us because you were suffering so bad and I never wanted to see you like that and I knew my pawpaw and grandma were waiting on you and that God wanted His creation back.

But I will never forget the good times that we had and I will keep doing what you always told me made you happy and made you proud seeing me do.

"Mr. Bigg"

- The Obituary -

Michael Carnell Wynn, affectionately known as “Mr. Bigg,” passed away on Monday, December 23, 2024, at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. Born on February 9, 1971, in Lee County, Alabama, Michael’s life was a testament to his friendly nature, adventurous spirit, and passionate heart.

Raised by his loving grandmother, Sallie Meredith, Michael learned the value of faith at an early age when he confessed Christ and became a member of Fitten Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church in Opelika. His spiritual journey continued at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Valley, Alabama, where he was an active and devoted member who served on the Deacon Board. Michael’s faith was an integral part of who he was, providing guidance and strength throughout his life.

A proud graduate of Opelika High School’s Class of 1989, Michael’s talent and love for sports earned him a football scholarship to Alabama State University. His passion for the game was undeniable, and it remained constant in his life. An avid Alabama football fan, Michael’s rallying cry of “Roll Tide” could be heard at every opportunity. His enthusiasm extended beyond the gridiron as he lent his voice to the Opelika Bulldogs boys basketball team, becoming a beloved figure in local sports.

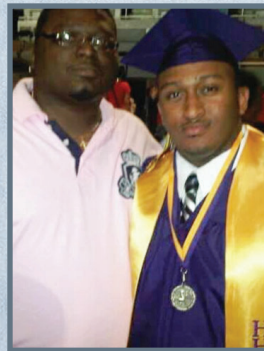

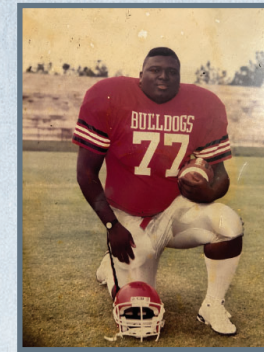

Michael’s zest for life was evident in all his pursuits. He loved riding four-wheelers, an activity that spoke to his adventurous side and love for the outdoors. In the kitchen, Michael’s culinary skills shone brightly, and his love for cooking was a joy for family and friends who were lucky enough to experience his meals.

He shared his love for shopping with his daughter, creating cherished memories during their time together. These moments, filled with laughter and love, are a testament to the bond they shared.

Michael was preceded in death by his father, Mr. Jerome Carr, his mother, Fannie Pearl Wynn, and his son, Jair Wynn. The legacy of Michael’s kind spirit, zest for life, and generosity will live on through his family, friends, and all who knew him.

Michael Carnell Wynn’s life was one of joy, companionship, and unwavering faith. Those who knew him were touched by his kindness and his unwavering commitment to his loved ones and his passions. As we remember “Mr. Bigg,” we celebrate the life of a man who was truly larger than life itself.

- I Miss My Dad -

Although I cannot see you
Feel your hugs or kiss your face
I'll imagine you're beside me
An unseen presence I will embrace.

The night before you left us
Asleep no words were spoken
A gentle kiss placed on your head
Heavens gates stood halfway open.

Reflections of that morning
Before dawn, you slipped away
Still replay through my daily thoughts
I will never forget that day.

Cannot begin to tell you
Just what that has meant to me
The painful process of letting you go
The hole in our family tree.

I miss your hugs, I miss your voice
Your genuine “I love you”
The simple spring lost in your step
The illness got to that too.

I don't wallow much in sorrow
You wouldn't have wanted that for me
Your wish to remain the strong one
Is the one you said I would be.

And though some days it's difficult
I still want to call on you Dad
Your swift untimely departure
Makes me reflect on just what I had.
