- The Obituary -

Annie Lois Myree-Lewis, a cherished soul known for her loving nature, adventurous spirit, and creative flair, passed away peacefully at her home in Auburn, Alabama, on Sunday, December 22, 2024. Born on May 19, 1954, in Elmore County, Alabama, Annie's life was a tapestry of vibrant experiences and accomplishments that touched the hearts of all who knew her.

Annie was a proud graduate of Opelika High School, Class of 1972, where she made history as the first African American flag girl. Her passion for knowledge and technology led her to further her education at Southern Union, where she studied Computer Science. Her professional journey was marked by dedication and hard work, with notable contributions to West Point Pepperell, Mando, and Fred's.

Outside of work, Annie was a devoted member of the Jubilee Christian Fellowship International in Tuskegee, Alabama, where she found joy in fellowship and service. In the community she fellowshiped and served as well as a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

Annie's zest for life was evident in her many interests. She had a love for shopping, always on the hunt for the next great find. Traveling was another passion, as she relished the opportunity to explore new places and cultures. Arts and crafts provided a creative outlet for her imagination, resulting in many beautiful creations that will be treasured by her family and friends.

Known for her impeccable sense of style, Annie loved dressing up, whether for a special occasion or simply to brighten a regular day. Her sense of fashion was matched only by her talent in the kitchen, where she was a very good cook, always eager to share her delectable dishes with loved ones.

Annie's legacy of love and warmth is carried on by the memories of her deceased parents, Mr. Arthur James and Mrs. Julia Mae Brown Maddox, Sr., and the countless lives she touched with her kind and adventurous spirit.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three children, Quake

- Her -

*Though her smile is gone forever and her hand we cannot touch.
We have so many memories of the one we loved so much.*

*Her laughter, her joy, her wisdom, her hope,
And her strength never showed when she was hurt.
She would say, "I am a Soldier, I am willing to Fight"
No matter what she encountered she stood up in the midst of the storm,
She went to battle and never gave up.*

*Her words have always been straight and blunt.
What she did not say out loud,
Her Eyes told you what she meant at that point,*

*She might be gone but she is still loved by many,
Her memories are now our keepsake which we will never part.*

*God has her in His Keeping; We, have her in Our Hearts.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.*
