- Lord, He Is Here -

There was a man,
Whom God had a Special Plan,
This man while on earth,
Everyday proved his worth.

To God he was endeared,
The Lord said to the Angels,
"I want him here!"

He lived his life pleasing to others,
And treated all men as though
They were brothers.

Being a Friend to those all around,
Whomever called never letting them down.

Among the Heavens
Were a joyous revival,
As the Lord anxiously awaited
This man's arrival.

The Lord to him,
Because he was needed,
His work on earth
Had been completed.

So, the Heavens opened,
And with a cheer,
The Angels shouted aloud.
"Lord, He is Here!"

- The Obituary -

Brian Keith Reeves, known affectionately as “Tyrone”, by those who loved him, passed away on Friday, January 3, 2025, at the Roanoke Rehabilitation and Healthcare Center in Roanoke, Alabama. Born on February 15, 1967, in Lee County, Alabama, Tyrone was a beacon of joy and strength in the lives of all who knew him.

Tyrone was a proud graduate of the Auburn High School Class of 1985, where his passion and talent for basketball earned him a spot on the varsity team. His love for sports was undeniable, as he remained a fervent supporter of the Auburn Tigers “War Eagle” Football team and an enthusiastic Atlanta Falcon fan throughout his life.

At an early age he united with Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church in Auburn, Alabama. Later he united with Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Loachapoka, Alabama, where he worshipped until his health failed.

Tyrone leaves behind a legacy of kindness, laughter, and unwavering faith. Though he now joins his beloved family members who preceded him in death—his father, Billy Carter; his mother, Shirley Faye Woody Reeves; and his brother, Christopher Wayne Reeves. He will forever be remembered as a loving son, brother, and friend.

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
 His journey's just begun,
 Life holds so many facets,
 This earth is only one.
 Just think of him as resting
 From the sorrows and the tears
 In a place of warmth and comfort
 Where there are no days and years.
 Think of how he must be wishing,
 That we could know today
 How nothing but our sadness
 Can really pass away.
 And think of him as living
 In the hearts of those he touched
 For nothing loved is ever loss
 And he was loved so much.

Love Your Brother, Jeffery
