The Obituary

Annie Will Pitts Watts, affectionately known as "Cuck" to those who knew her best, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 8, 2025, at HCA Memorial Hospital in Jacksonville, Florida. Born on December 18, 1953, in Lee County, Alabama to Mrs. Katie Mae Pitts Bass and the late Mr. Levi Matthews, Annie's life was a testament to her faith-filled spirit and her endless capacity for friendship and selflessness.

Annie's early years were spent in the tight-knit community of Loachapoka, Alabama, where she attended Loachapoka High School. Her education there laid the foundation for a life characterized by a steadfast commitment to her beliefs and a dedication to helping others. She carried these values throughout her life, influencing everyone she met with her friendly demeanor and her innate ability to make those around her feel loved and accepted.

At a young age, Annie's heart was captured by the teachings of Christ, leading her to unite with Mt. Sinai in Auburn, Alabama. Her spiritual journey continued as she later joined the congregation of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Loachapoka, Alabama where she remained an active and devoted member.

Annie's love for the outdoors was evident in her passion for gardening and fishing. Her garden was a vibrant tapestry of colors and scents that brought joy to all who had the pleasure of experiencing it.

But above all, Annie was a beacon of light in her community, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. Her selflessness knew no bounds, and she often put the needs of others before her own. Her home was a haven for family and friends, a place where laughter was abundant, and memories were made.

She was preceded in death by her son, Shawn Calloway, Sr. She leaves to cherish her precious memory: daughter, Lakenna Watts of Jacksonville, FL; stepson, Michael (Nicole) Holloway of Huntsville, AL; mother, Katie Bass of Loachapoka, AL, five sisters, Ella Pitts, Anteneria Pearson both of Loachapoka, AL, Deborah (Archie) Harris of Gainesville, FL, Ambrosia Cooke of Syracuse, NY and Mary Ann Davis of Decatur, GA; three brothers, Jeffery (Georgia) Bass, Willis (Cynthia) Bass both of Auburn, AL and Pastor Kelvin Matthews of Columbus, GA; five grandchildren, Shawndria Calloway, Leshawn Calloway, Derrion Calloway all of Loachapoka, AL, Katelyn Calloway and Shawn Calloway, Jr., both of Opelika, AL; one uncle, L.E. Pitts of Birmingham, AL; one brother-in-law, Joe (Mary Lois) Watts of Waverly, AL; two sisters-in-law, Rosie Johnson of Loachapoka, AL and Lizzy Pearl (Joe) Love of Waverly, AL; two special friends, Christine Willis of Loachapoka, AL and Joe Lewis Smith of Jacksonville, FL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

— Farewell Mother —
 Somewhere in my heart beneath all my grief and pain,
 Is a smile I still wear at the sound of your dear name.
 The precious word is 'MOTHER', she was my world you see,
 But now my heart is breaking cause she's no longer here with me.
 God chose her for His angel to watch me from above,
 To guide me and advise me and know that I'm still loved.
 The day she had to leave me when her life on earth was through,
 God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew.
 When I think of her kind heart and all those loving years,
 My memories surround me and I can't hold back the tears.
 She truly was my best friend, someone I could confide in.
 She always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin.
 I want to thank you Mother for teaching me so well,
 And though the time has come that I must bid you this farewell.
 I'll remember all you've taught me and make you proud you'll see.
 Thank you my Dear Mother for all the love you showed me.
 Although you've left this earth and now you've taken flight,
 I know that you are here with me each morning, noon and night.
