- TO A LOVING UNCLE -

*Although our worlds are different now
Or is that just how it seems.
For I see you when I close my eyes
Because you're always in my dreams.*

*I know you're up in Heaven
And looking down on me.
And when I look up at the stars
I know that's where you'll be.*

*Even though I miss you
You're not too far away.
Because my heart is full of memories
And I treasure them every day.*

*Our time on Earth was special
But it's only the very start.
So please keep watching over me
While we're not so far apart.*

*Someday the time will come
When I no longer feel this pain.
That is the day when Heaven calls
And we will meet again.*

*We Love You Uncle,
Makai and Kodi*

- OBITUARY -

Austin Kyle Jordan, age 31, passed away on Saturday, February 14, 2025, in his hometown of Lee County, Alabama, where he had been a beacon of love and light since his birth on October 8, 1993, to proud parents Mr. Ronald and Mrs. Audra Peters Jordan. Austin's life was one marked by faith, passion, and a zest for the great outdoors, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all who knew him.

A proud graduate of Opelika High School's class of 2012, Austin's academic journey was just the beginning of a life dedicated to service and community. From a tender age, he embraced his spirituality and became an integral part of Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church. His commitment to his faith was evident through his active participation in the junior usher board, the youth choir, the crusaders, and numerous other church events. Austin's unwavering faith and dedication to his church community were a testament to his loving and faith-filled nature.

Austin was a man of many talents and interests. An avid outdoorsman, he found joy in every aspect of nature, from hunting with his father to simply taking in the beauty of Alabama's landscapes. His athletic prowess was showcased through his love for football, baseball, and track. Music coursed through his veins, as he masterfully played various instruments, including the guitar, keyboard, drums, and violin, and his voice was a cherished addition to any gathering, as he loved to sing.

His artistic talents didn't stop at music; Austin was also skilled in cooking and drawing, often sharing his culinary creations with friends and family. His compassion extended to all living creatures, and he had a particular soft spot for animals, especially his beloved pet dog, Gates. Austin's nurturing spirit made him a natural caretaker, whether for people or pets.

Professionally, Austin's gifted hands and sharp mind led him to a career as an electrician technician with Dixie Electric. His dedication and skill were evident in his work, and he was driven by a desire to deepen his expertise, pursuing an electrician apprenticeship to further his capabilities. He was also a skilled barber, as he cut hair for family and friends, offering not just a haircut but a dose of kindness and conversation.

Austin's life was one of adventure and love. Those who knew him would describe him as loving, adventurous, and faith-filled. His presence could light up a room, and his infectious enthusiasm for life's many experiences was a joy to behold. He approached every day with a sense of wonder and a deep appreciation for the world around him.

To say Austin will be missed is an understatement. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and the enduring power of faith. His memory will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to cross paths with him. Austin Kyle Jordan's journey on earth may have been brief, but the impact of his life will be felt for generations to come.
