

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

— Remember Me —

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented,
That my life was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street,
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy,
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you,
Each morning, noon and night.

— Let Me Go —

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

The Obituary

Brenda Sue "Brent" Hodge, passed away peacefully on Thursday, February 20, 2025, at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama, at the age of 56. Born on January 29, 1969, in Lee County, Alabama, she was the cherished daughter of Mrs. Annie Ruth Beasley Hodge and the late Mr. Robert Hodge, Jr. Brent's early years were filled with the warmth of a loving family and the strong sense of community that would come to define her life.

Brent's journey was marked by her unwavering faith, which she embraced wholeheartedly when she devoted herself to Christ and joined the Antioch Baptist Church in Opelika, Alabama. Her commitment to her church was evident in her service on the Usher Board, where she welcomed members and visitors alike with her radiant smile and open heart.

Her professional life was characterized by the same dedication and passion she showed in her spiritual endeavors. Brent's work ethic and compassionate nature left a lasting impact on all who had the pleasure of working alongside her.

Brent's interests were as diverse as they were fulfilling. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life, such as cooking meals that would bring her family together around the table, sharing laughter and stories. Fishing trips were a source of connection with nature, while her love for gaming provided endless hours of entertainment.
