- The Obituary -

Kingston Mack Burns, affectionately known as “KB” to his family and friends, was a vibrant soul whose light shone brightly during his six years of life. Born on April 10, 2018, to the loving parents, Mr. Talton Vantrez Burns and Ms. Hollyann Noel Watwood, Kingston entered this world with boundless energy and a heart full of joy. His journey on earth came to a close on Monday, February 24, 2025, in his hometown of Opelika, Alabama.

Kingston’s infectious laughter and exuberant spirit were a blessing to all who knew him. As a first grader at Beauregard Elementary School, he was known for his love of learning, with math being his favorite subject. His teachers and classmates will fondly remember his eagerness to solve problems and his determination to succeed in every challenge he faced.

A true outdoorsman at heart, Kingston found solace and excitement in the embrace of nature. He cherished every moment spent hunting and fishing, reveling in the beauty of the wilderness. His love for dogs was unparalleled, and he could often be found exploring the great outdoors.

Kingston’s passion for sports was evident to all, with football holding a special place in his heart. He was an avid Auburn football fan, cheering on the “War Eagle” with an enthusiasm that was contagious. His competitive spirit was admirable, always striving to be a winner in every aspect of life.

Church played a significant role in Kingston’s life, nurturing his kind and compassionate soul. He found joy in reading books, expanding his imagination and knowledge with every page turned. His love for his family, especially his sisters, was the cornerstone of his existence. He was a beacon of love and happiness in their lives, and his memory will continue to be a source of strength and comfort.

Though he was preceded in death by his grandfather, Reverend Talton Burns, Kingston’s legacy will live on through the cherished memories he created with his loved ones.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: mother, Hollyann Watwood of Opelika, AL; father, Talton Burns of Opelika, AL; four sisters, Kayden Bailey, Kloe Greer, Khali Burns and Ki’Lani Burns all of Opelika, AL; one brother, Kai Bailey of Opelika, AL; maternal grandparents, Mark Watwood and Paige (Keith) Elliott both of Opelika, AL; paternal grandmother, Ayesha Burns of Opelika, AL; maternal great-grandmother, Shirley Watwood of Cullman, AL; great-great grandmother, Bobbie Jean Johnson of Cullman, AL; four uncles, Landon (Ashton) Elliott of Corpus Christi, TX, Evan (Bre) Elliott of Valley, AL, Scott Floyd and Steve Griffin both of Opelika, AL; two aunts, Taleisha Burns and Talshaia Burns both of Opelika, AL; a host of great uncles, great aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.
