- The Obituary -

William Garrett Roberson, Sr., was born on October 9, 1989, to the loving family of Mr. Michael and Prophetess Jacquelyn Sinclair Roberson in Lee County, Alabama. He gained his wings peacefully at his home in Opelika, Alabama on March 12, 2025. His life was a testament to the power of faith, family, and a generous spirit.

William was a proud graduate of the Opelika High School Class of 2008. His athletic prowess was evident as he played football and excelled in track and field. His love for sports was consistent throughout his life, providing both joy and a means of connecting with others. After high school he attended Kentucky State University and later Troy University, where he continued to pursue his education. Professionally, William was known for his dedication and hard work. He was also a man of deep faith.

At a young age he confessed Christ and joined St. Luke A.M.E. Church in Opelika, where he was a cherished member. As he grew older, he embraced his role as a God-fearing role model. This transformation only deepened the respect and admiration he received from anyone who was fortunate enough to cross paths with him. His involvement in the community was a reflection of his faith and commitment to serve and uplift those around him. In addition, William's infectious laughter and love for telling jokes touched the hearts of everyone he encountered and lifted the spirits of those around him.

William's interests were varied and reflected his vibrant personality. He was a family man and well known for displaying his keen sense of fashion. Those who knew William would describe him as loving, kind, and faith-filled. He was a man who not only displayed the virtues of love and kindness but lived them every day. His presence was a comfort, his laughter a gift, and his guidance a light to all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

William worked at United Parcel Service (UPS) for the past six years as a driver, preloader and local sort loader. UPS not only served as his place of employment but also his ministry and calling. In his role as a driver, he was a respected colleague, mentor, counselor, brother and friend. He was always dropping nuggets of wisdom so sweet, one brother was known to say, "Ooo-wee! That's so good William, let me write that down."

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Willie Roberson; maternal grandparents, Sylvester and Kathryn Sinclair, Sr.; two aunts, Angela Roberson and Evangelist Linda Clay; and a special uncle, Reverend Ivory Griskell.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: one son, William Garrett Roberson, Jr. and his siblings, Alexander Gay and Jordan Gracie Youngblood both of Opelika, AL; parents, Michael and Prophetess Jacquelyn Roberson of Opelika, AL; one sister, Kristina (Curtis) McIntosh of Fort Worth, TX; one brother, Austin Douglas Roberson of Frisco, TX; five aunts, Tracey Roberson of Opelika, AL, Linda Stevens of Atlanta, GA, Carol (Anthony) Clark of Beauregard, AL, Gwendolyn Griskell of Auburn, AL and Kimberly Holmes of Sacramento, CA; seven uncles, Ray Roberson of Auburn, AL, Brad Roberson of Birmingham, AL, Michael O. Sinclair of Pensacola, FL, Sylvester Sinclair, Jr. of Stone Mountain, GA, Kenneth (Rhonda) Sinclair of Phenix City, AL and Michael T. (Monique) Sinclair of Beauregard, AL; special uncle, Danon Holmes, Sr; special coworkers and close friends Devin Talley, Renard Caldwell, William McCall, Lesley Smithermon and Wesley Talley; close friend as a brother Lamarcus Butler; one niece, whom he loved dearly, Harmony McIntosh; one nephew, Dallas McIntosh; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
