CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

"LANA BUG"

Alana

MICHELLE EILAND

Remembering Alana

Alana Michelle Eiland, affectionately known as "Lana Bug" by those who loved her, graced this world with her presence on July 14, 1998, born to Mrs. Amanda Jackson Eiland and the late Mr. Andrew Eiland in the warm community of Lee County, Alabama. Her journey on earth came to a peaceful end on Saturday, March 15, 2025, at her cherished home in Opelika, Alabama. Lana's radiant spirit and infectious laughter left an indelible mark on the hearts of all who knew her.

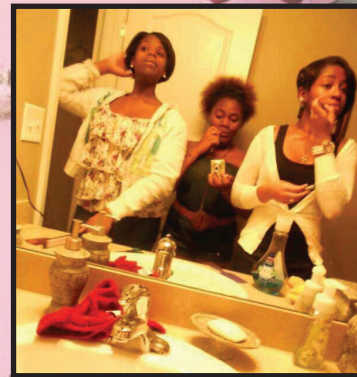

A proud graduate of Opelika High School Class of 2016, Lana's zest for life and her pursuit of excellence were evident from her early years. She carried this enthusiasm into her adult life, where she was recently licensed as an insurance agent. Lana's career at State Farm was more than a job, it was a calling where she dedicated herself to serving her clients with the same care and passion she brought to every aspect of her life.

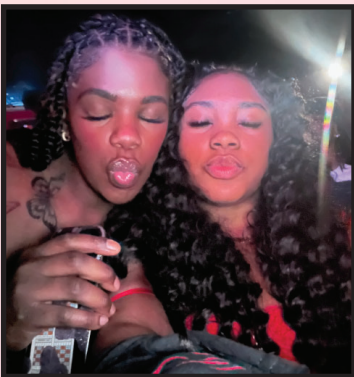

Lana's commitment to her faith was unwavering. At a tender age, she confessed Christ and was baptized at Temple of God Church, Inc. in Hurtsboro, Alabama. Her spiritual journey continued as she became an integral part of The City Church in Opelika, Alabama. Lana's faith was the cornerstone of her existence, fueling her with strength and guiding her through life's challenges with grace.

Beyond her professional and spiritual endeavors, Lana was a vibrant soul with a flair for fashion. She took pride in her stylish dress, always expressing her unique style with confidence and creativity. Music was another of Lana's passions, and she could often be found at live concerts, soaking in the melodies and rhythms that she loved so much. Her creativity knew no bounds; she was an avid reader, an enthusiastic cook, and had a natural talent for bringing laughter into any room with her playful sense of humor.

Those who had the pleasure of knowing Lana will remember her as a loving and creative force, a woman whose faith-filled life was a testament to her character. Her ability to find joy in the simple pleasures of life, to create beauty in the world around her, and to share her love without reservation made her a cherished daughter, a dependable friend, and an inspiration to all.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: mother, Amanda Eiland of Opelika, AL; five sisters, Kiah Jackson of Opelika, AL, Ashley Eiland of Savannah, GA, Shantivia (Tyron) Ponds of Opelika, AL, Latisa (Omar) Fears of Opelika, AL and Brittany Holland; one brother, Andrew Eiland, Jr. of Opelika, AL; grandmother, Ida Lue Melton of Opelika, AL; five aunts, Katina (Dimitri) Tate, Christy Melton both of Mobile, AL, Mildred (Charles) Grainger of Syracuse, NY, Patricia (Terry) Welch of Opelika, AL and Michelle Pitts of Auburn, AL; five uncles, Eddie (Tinie) Eiland, Jr., Melton Eiland, Oscar Eiland, Mitchell (Danielle) Eiland all of Opelika, AL, and Bishop Larry (Nakell) Johnson of Camp Hill, AL; one great uncle, Marshall Nunn of Opelika, AL; two great aunts, Eva Jackson of Opelika, AL and Ethel Jackson of Charleston, SC; godmother, Kimberly (Earl) Calloway of Opelika, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Life Is Not Measured

Life is not measured by the numbers of breaths we take,
But by the moments that takes our breath away
With joy, with laughter, with love's sweet grace,
These are the treasures that time cannot erase.

Not in the years that pass, but in the light
We shared, the dreams we held, the stars we fought.
The memories we made, the hands we held,
These are the legacies that time has spelled.

So let us not mourn the ending, but celebrate
The lives we lived, the love we did create.
For in the hearts of those who loved us dear,
Our spirits live on, banishing all fear.
