- The Obituary -

Kennedy Bernard Pitts, a cherished father, brother and loved one, passed away peacefully on a date that will be eternally etched in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Born on March 29, 1968, in the nurturing community of Lee County, Alabama, Kennedy was the proud son of the late Mr. Walter Pitts, Sr. and Gloria Hutchinson Cobb. His life was a tapestry of dedication, joy, and unwavering faith that touched the lives of many.

Kennedy's formative years were spent within the halls of Loachapoka High School, where he graduated with the Class of 1987. It was there that he not only excelled academically but also left an indelible mark on the basketball court. As a key player on the varsity championship basketball team, lead him to a scholarship to Miles College in Birmingham, Alabama.

From a young age, Kennedy's spirit was anchored in his faith. He confessed Christ and became an integral part of the Mt. Vernon Missionary Baptist Church community in Auburn, Alabama. His commitment to his faith and church was unwavering and served as a cornerstone for his life's work and relationships.

His love for basketball endured long after his high school days, as he continued to play and share his love for the game with others. Kennedy's enthusiasm for sports was all-encompassing, and he was a fervent supporter of Auburn athletics, often heard cheering "War Eagle" with the same vigor and passion he exhibited in all his endeavors.

Kennedy's impact on those around him was profound, and his absence will be deeply felt by his family, friends, and all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Kennedy Bernard Pitts leaves behind a legacy of love and memories that will be cherished forever. As we bid farewell to a man of integrity, kindness, and unwavering faith, we take solace in knowing that his spirit will continue to inspire and guide us. Though he may have departed from this earthly realm, his memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him, and his story will be told with admiration and love for generations to come.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: one daughter, Yasmine Story of Houston, TX; one sister, Camil Welch of Auburn, AL; one brother, Walter Pitts, Jr. of Orlando, FL; three nephews, Dontavius (LaVesha) Washington of Charlotte, NC, Chandler Alexander and Antonio Welch both of Auburn, AL; one niece, Brianna Linberry of Auburn, AL; eleven aunts, Barbara (John L.) - Loss of a Loved One -

A light from our family is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in the home
Which never can be filled.
We have to mourn the loss of one,
We would've loved to keep,
But God who surely loved him best
Has finally made him sleep.
After a lifetime of his love and joy
And music to fill our ears.
God leaves these wondrous memories
To help us through our tears.
