The Obituary

Mrs. Erma Mae Hawkins Woodall, a beacon of faith and love, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 22, 2025, at her home in Kennesaw, Georgia with her family and caregiver by her side. Born on September 15, 1936, in Macon County, Alabama, she was the cherished daughter of the late Mr. Marion Lee and Mrs. Lelia Tyner Hawkins, Sr.

Erma's life was a testament to the strength and grace that can be woven through the years of one's journey on earth.

From her early years in Macon County, Erma's life was marked by a deep commitment to her faith. She attended local schools, and at an early age, she confessed Christ and became a dedicated member of Mt. Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church in Tuskegee, Alabama. Her involvement in the church was profound; she served with humility on the Usher Board and lifted her voice in joy as a member of the choir. These roles reflected her faith-filled spirit, which guided her through all aspects of life.

Erma's heart was always centered around her home and family. Blessed with four children, she embraced the role of a devoted housewife and loving mother with unmatched enthusiasm. Her love for her family was evident in the warmth of her home, the delicious meals she cooked, and the songs and dances she shared with her loved ones. Erma's presence was a source of comfort and joy, and her legacy of love will continue to resonate with all who knew her.

Throughout her life, Erma's actions spoke volumes of her character. She was a woman who found beauty in simplicity and strength in kindness. Her laughter was infectious, her advice was sought after, and her ability to listen made her a confidante to many. Erma's life was a reflection of the values she held dear: faith, family, and community.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Willie Woodall, Sr.; sister, Eva Mae Williams; two brothers, Marion Hawkins, Jr. and Joseph Hawkins.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four children, Lelia Cason of Auburn, AL, Emma (Vincent) Gresham of Kennesaw, GA, Willie Woodall, Jr. of Auburn, AL and Marilyn Woodall of Powder Springs, GA; four grandchildren, Tamika Cason of Opelika, AL, Eddie Cason, Jr. (Vitankey) of Auburn, AL, Roslyn Gresham and Vincent Thomas Gresham both of Kennesaw, GA; nine great grandchildren, Ta'Mia Henry, Emmett Henry III, Peyton Cason, Angelina Cason, Eddie Cason III, Jasmine Combs, LaDerious Heard, Melik Heard and Skylar Gresham; six great-great grandchildren, Eddie Cason IV, Arabella Heard, Jordan Glaze, LaDerious Heard, Jr., LaKington Heard and LaParis Heard; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; caregiver, Shelley-Ann Mills-McGregor (Integrity Healthcare).
