- The Obituary -

Ms. Juanita Brooks, a beacon of love and care in her community, passed away peacefully on Monday, April 21, 2025, at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. Born on November 10, 1956, in Lee County, Alabama, she was the cherished daughter of the late Mr. Nathan and Mrs. Leola Frederick Brooks. Juanita's warmth and kindness touched all who knew her, and her legacy will be remembered by many.

A proud graduate of the Opelika High School Class of 1975, Juanita's passion for learning and personal growth was evident throughout her life.

Juanita's heart was truly in her role as a caregiver. She dedicated herself to nurturing and supporting others, particularly children, whose lives she brightened with her unwavering attention and care. Her love for the young was a testament to her generous nature and her belief in the promise of future generations.

An active member of the Ole Lady's Gang, Juanita found joy and camaraderie among her peers. Her infectious laughter and spirited presence were the highlights of many gatherings, and her absence will be deeply felt within the group.

Juanita's life was a portrait of selfless service and boundless affection. She was a guiding light, a source of comfort, and a friend to all. Her memory will be cherished and kept alive by the countless hearts she touched. Juanita Brooks's journey on earth may have concluded, but the impact of her love and kindness will resonate for eternity.

- Miss Me, But Let Me Go -

When I Come To The End of the Road
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in the gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your heads bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's Plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.
