— Missing You —

Our lives go on without you
But nothing is the same.
We have to hide our heartache
When someone speaks your name.
Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent are the tears that fall.
Living without you is the Hardest part of all.
You did so many things for us
Your heart was so kind and true.
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you.
The special years will not return
When we are all together.
But with love in our hearts
You walk with us forever.

Your Loving Family

- The Obituary -

Mrs. Belinda Patrick Grimmett, a beacon of light and love, passed away peacefully on Friday, May 2, 2025, at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. Born on December 24, 1950, in Chambers County, Alabama, she was the cherished daughter of the late Mr. Eluchious and Mrs. Fannie Dowdell Patrick. Belinda's life was a testament to her strength, compassion, and unwavering faith.

A proud graduate of Lafayette High School Class of 1969, Belinda's youthful exuberance and commitment to her community were evident early on. Her dedication to her faith led her to confess Christ at a young age and become an integral part of the Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Auburn, Alabama. Her melodious voice graced the church choir, and her presence was a source of comfort and inspiration to all who knew her.

Belinda's passion for life was matched by her love for the great outdoors. She found solace in the tranquility of her garden, where she cultivated not only plants but also joy and serenity. Her green thumb was a symbol of her ability to nurture and grow those things that created the beauty around her, a trait that extended to every aspect of her life.

A devoted fan of game shows, Belinda's competitive spirit and laughter were most vibrant when watching her favorite, "Family Feud." Her enthusiasm was infectious, and she could turn any ordinary evening into a memorable gathering, cheering on the contestants and playfully debating the answers with her loved ones.

Belinda's most profound legacy, however, was her role as a motivator and encourager. She had an innate ability to uplift those around her, instilling confidence and hope with her words and actions. Her wisdom and guidance were gifts that she generously shared, leaving a lasting impact on countless lives.

Above all, Belinda was a loving mother and grandmother. Her children and grandchildren were the center of her universe, and she showered them with unconditional love and support. Her legacy of kindness, resilience, and love will live on through them and the many lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by: four siblings, Jimmy Lewis Patrick, Clara Patrick, Eddie Patrick and Mary Patrick; one grandson, Tyshon Grimmett.

She leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Ovell Grimmett of Auburn, AL; two children, Anthony (Alesia) Grimmett of Tuscaloosa, AL and LaKisha Grimmett of Virginia; seven grandchildren, Brittney Strozer, Miyah (Resha) Ligon, Jada Grimmett, Kayla Grimmett, Tyamber Willis, T.J. Harris and Shunkeeta Boyd; two great-grandchildren, Ava Ligon and Alaya Ray; two sisters, Bernatte Patrick of Opelika, AL and Rose (Percy) Marks of Cusseta, AL; one brother, Charles (Shavon) Patrick of Opelika, AL; one sister-in-law, Mary Jackson of Auburn, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
